TILL FLYING HIGH WITH SPIRIT

The heart of Southwest High School lives in a very special kind of spirit. This spirit is visible in the faces of the crowds supporting athletic events. It is evident in the voices of the fans and the cheerleaders. The heart of Southwest's spirit is personified in Johnny Higdon, the Spirit Director. Southwest Seniors have their own unique spirit whether they are walking to the movies or competing with each others' supervisions in singing the Senior Song — dressed in their Senior Jerseys, of course! At pep rallies or "funerals" Southwest Spirit RULES! Buildings and faces may change but Southwest Spirit remains constant.

TILL FLYING HIGH IN ACADEMICS

The "new math" at Southwest took the equation " $1 - \frac{1}{3} = 2$ " and from the Southwest complex came Southwest and Southeast. Academic programs at Southwest were strong enough to create new groups and still maintain the quality reputation expected from Southwest students. We are still flying high with Beta Club, Math Team, Academic Bowl, Debate Team, Annual Staff, Foreign Relations, our Advanced Placement programs, Governor's Honors Program, Young Columbus contest, and Golden Eagle winners. Southwest students earn thousands of dollars in scholarship monies each year. Academic excellence is still an important part of Southwest.

TILL FLYING HIGH WITH TRADITION

When you think of Southwest High School, the word tradition automatically comes to mind. Part of our tradition is spirit, but it goes beyond that. As the Southwest Marching Band boogies onto the field, or a young person sinks a basketball through the hoop, that tradition comes alive. Giving is also a tradition whether it takes the form of money to help a family whose house burned, toys for the needy children, donating blood to the Student Council Blood Drive, or time to tutor students or advise an organization. Cherry Blossom Princesses and the MORP are new traditions. Southwest tradition will always be FLYING HIGH!

Patriots Play With Spirit

Southwest's Varsity Football team began the season with high hopes for a victorious year.

In the season opener, Southwest showed its spirit in a game with newly formed Benjamin-Banneker out of Atlanta. But the Patriots came up short in overtime, losing to Banneker: 1-0 by the penetration rule. In the next game, the Patriots fought it out with the Baldwin Braves, but still came up short with a 14-16 loss to the Braves. The Patriots' third game was with Butler from Augusta. Things looked promising for the Patriots, but in the final seconds of the game Butler scored a field goal to win 17-14. Although the next few games were disappointing, the Southwest Patriots never lost their spirit and determination which lead the team to their first victory of the season against Northeast. The Patriots came out of the game with a win of 26-11. The next Patriot victory came on the night of the Southeast game. The Patriots gave their sister school a game to remember by winning 33-0. The Southwest Patriots' homecoming game was against Hepzibah. The Patriots were victorious by a score of 34-0.

Southwest played Central for the city championship. The Patriots played their hearts out; but, they missed the victory by three points (17-14) in the final seconds of the game.

The Patriots finished with a record of 3 and 7. This seemed to the statisticians to be disastrous. But, because of their spirit and teamwork, they were still winners.

Southwest's Best

The 1988 Football Season was full of excitement. The team had its ups and downs, but showed its spirit by never giving up.

The Southwest offense was led by quarterback Joe Dupree. He accounted for over 1,000 yards of the Patriot offense. His number one receiver was Charlie Simmons, who caught 23 passes for 421 yards and 7 touchdowns. Wide receiver Darren Willis' skill and ability enabled him to make the All-City football squad. Willis finished his senior year catching 27 passes for 338 yards and 5 touchdowns.

The Defensive Team was led by Maurice "Killer" Davison. He had 108 individual tackles, 44 assists, and total of 152 hits.

Young and Promising Stars of Tomorrow

The Southwest Junior Varsity Football team had an outstanding year. They began the season with a 22-0 win over Baldwin county, led by quarterbacks John Avera and Mike Ashley. The defensive linebackers Marcus Dupree and Adrian Baldwin held the offense to negative yards the entire game. Through the efforts of Iris Hill and Albert Sharpe, and the dedication of the players, Southwest finished the season as the "88" City Champs.

The fall of 1988 was tough for the Southwest Ninth Grade even though their 0-4 record does not show the effort put forth by the players. Coaches Haywood Simmons and David Reid believe that this past season will give the ninth grade valuable experience in the future for the B-team and Varsity Football Teams.

SOFTBALL

Play Ball!

The Southwest Lady Patriots continued the winning tradition associated with past softball teams. Under the guidance of Coach Dannah Graham, the Lady Patriots won nine games and lost four. This record enabled the hard working girls to capture the City Championship and take a respectable fourth place in the 4AAAA Region. With the underclassmen returning, the future looks bright for Southwest softball.

Winning Pats

Although the team consisted mainly of first year players, they played with the experience of veterans. The Lady Patriots are ruled by their desire to be on top. The way that this team plays characterizes this desire. The drive for the City Championship began with a victory over Northeast, SW 19-9. The Patriots' second win came against their sister school. It was believed that this would be a reconstruction year since there were only three returning players from last years' championship team. The team's hard work enabled them to continue a winning tradition.

WRESTLING

To The Mats!

For the fourth consecutive year, Coach Danny Grube's wrestlers were announced champions of the Area 3AAAA wrestling tournament. The team also placed second in the Southwest Invitational and third in the Fitzgerald Invitational.

The wrestlers performed remarkably well considering only 5 of the 13 wrestlers were veterans. Terrence Williams, Marquis Daniels, and newcomer Ramsey Hakeem made the first All Middle Georgia Wrestling Team. With most of the team returning, they can expect an outstanding year in 1990.

BASKETBALL

Electrifying Lady Pats!!!

The 1988-89 Lady Patriots basketball team had one of their finest seasons ever. Coached by Albert Sharpe, the Lady Patriots posted a regular season record of 17-3. The Lady Patriots exploded at the beginning of the season with 7 straight wins. In the first meeting with arch rival Northeast, the Lady Pats lost to the Raiderettes by one point. Later however, they avenged that heart-breaking loss to Northeast with a score of 47 to 45. These young ladies showed a great deal of teamwork. The team was led by center Stephanie Walker, ranked the number two player in girls' basketball in the Middle Georgia region. Stephanie averaged 24 points and 14 rebounds a game. In a game played against Thompkins, she set a school record by scoring 50 points. Stephanie made the All-City and All-Middle Georgia teams with her excellent offense and defense. With the impact underclassmen made on the team the Lady Patriots should bring Southwest more honors.

Awesome Pats

After a successful regular season, the Lady Pats went into subregion play. They defeated Northside 59-48. Southwest worked hard, but eventually lost to Northeast, 53-49. This loss, however, did not eliminate the Lady Patriots from the region playoffs. The biggest win of the season came against the three-time defending state champions Baldwin Bravettes. Southwest defeated the Bravettes with a score of 55 to 38. The Lady Patriots had a great season with a 21-5 record.

Shooting For Success

The B-Team Girls Basketball team had a great season with their new coach, Iris Hill. With determination and team work, the girls have proven to be the promising athletes that continue to make Southwest victorious. The leading scorers were Tonya Woolfolk and Tomekki Brown. Both girls averaged double figures throughout the season. Ending the year with 7-3 record, they pleased their coaches, fans, and peers.

SW Triumphs!

The young, talented Southwest Patriots had another successful year. Don Richardson coached the team to a 18-3 regular season record. After the Missouri tournament, the Patriots won 17 straight games. The biggest win of the year came against the number one ranked Douglass of Atlanta. The team was led by Ivano Newbill and Reginald "Doc" Manuel. Newbill ranked number one player in the Middle Georgia area. Newbill's season average was 12 points and 9 rebounds. He signed to play with the Georgia Institute of Technology. Reginald Manuel ranked number three in the Middle Georgia area; he averaged 15 points per game. With many players returning next year, another title could be in the Patriots' future.

Georgia State Champs for the Sixth Time

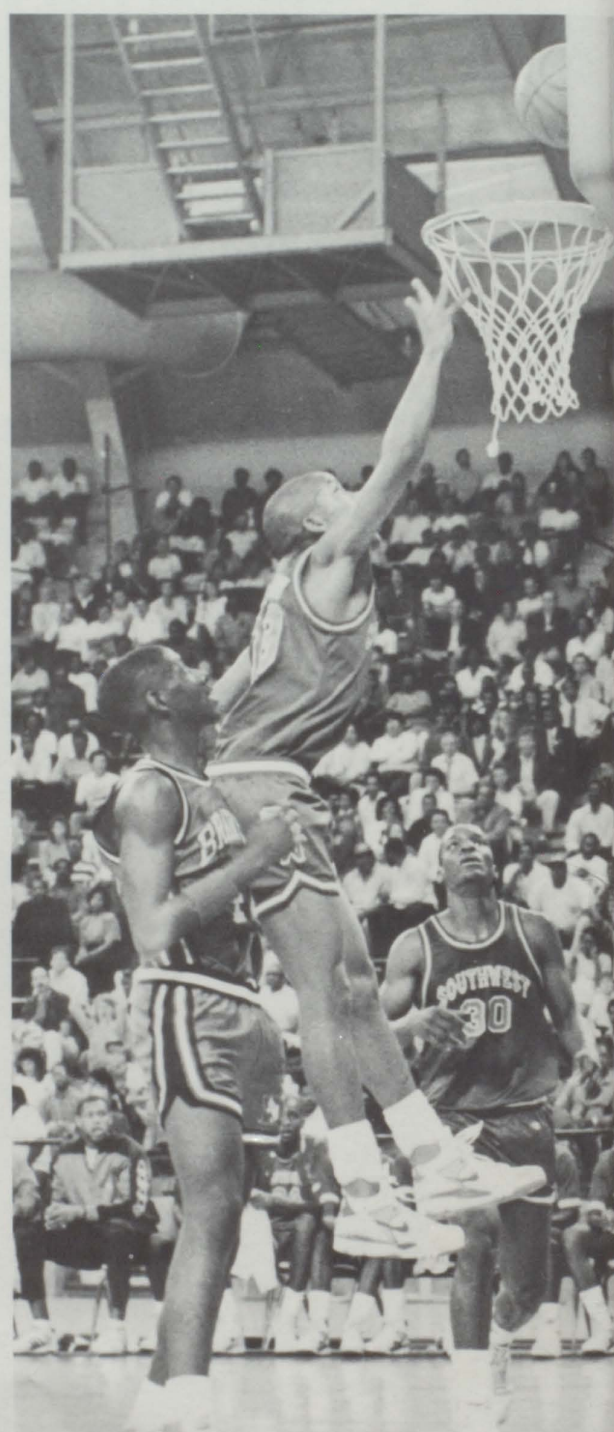

The Southwest Patriots won their sixth state title this past season. In the first round of the state tournament, Southwest defeated Windsor Forest, 58-40. Reginald "Doc" Manuel led the way with 21 points. Next, Southwest played defending State Champions, Griffin. The Patriots won the game 54 — 33. That win earned Southwest a spot in the final four game against Cedar Shoals. In this game, the Patriots' tall men, Sharone Wright and Ivano

Newbill, had early foul trouble. Then Charlie Simmons was moved to the center position. Simmons led the way with 19 points to carry Southwest to a victory over Cedar Shoals, 67-63, and into a state title game against Baldwin. Southwest outscored Baldwin to win 59 — 38. The Patriots finished the season with a 24-5 record.

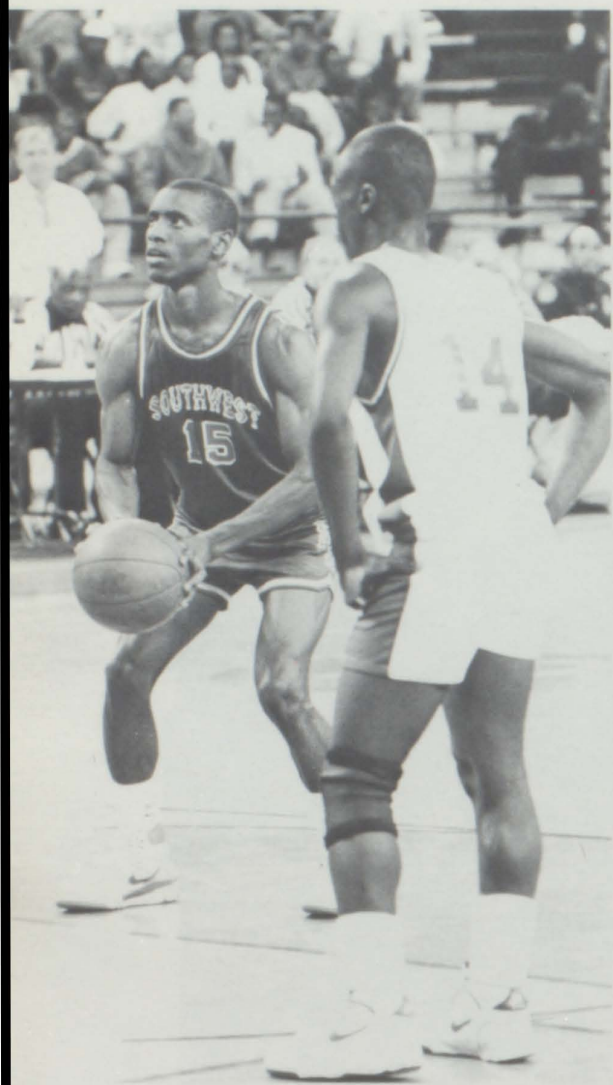

Southwest dominated the All City Team with members Russell Odom, Ivano Newbill, and Reginald Manuel.

Coach Don Richardson was awarded with Georgia All-State Coach of the Year for basketball. Newbill and Manuel were also named to the All Middle Georgia squad.

Future Stars On The Rise

The Ninth Grade boys enjoyed one of their finest seasons ever. The boys finished the year with eleven wins and one loss to win the coveted City Championship. Coach Eddie Robinson led his team to victories over Southeast, Northeast, and Central. The team's only loss came in the game with Baldwin by a score of 55-59. After that loss, the team went on to finish the year with a ten game winning streak. These young stars will certainly make an impact on B-Team and Varsity Basketball.

The B-Team basketball coached by Ronald Taylor enjoyed another season of success. The team had a record of 5-4-1 and a respectable second place finish in the race for the city championship. The quickness, speed, and ability shown by these young men will definitely make Southwest basketball stay number one in the state.

BASEBALL

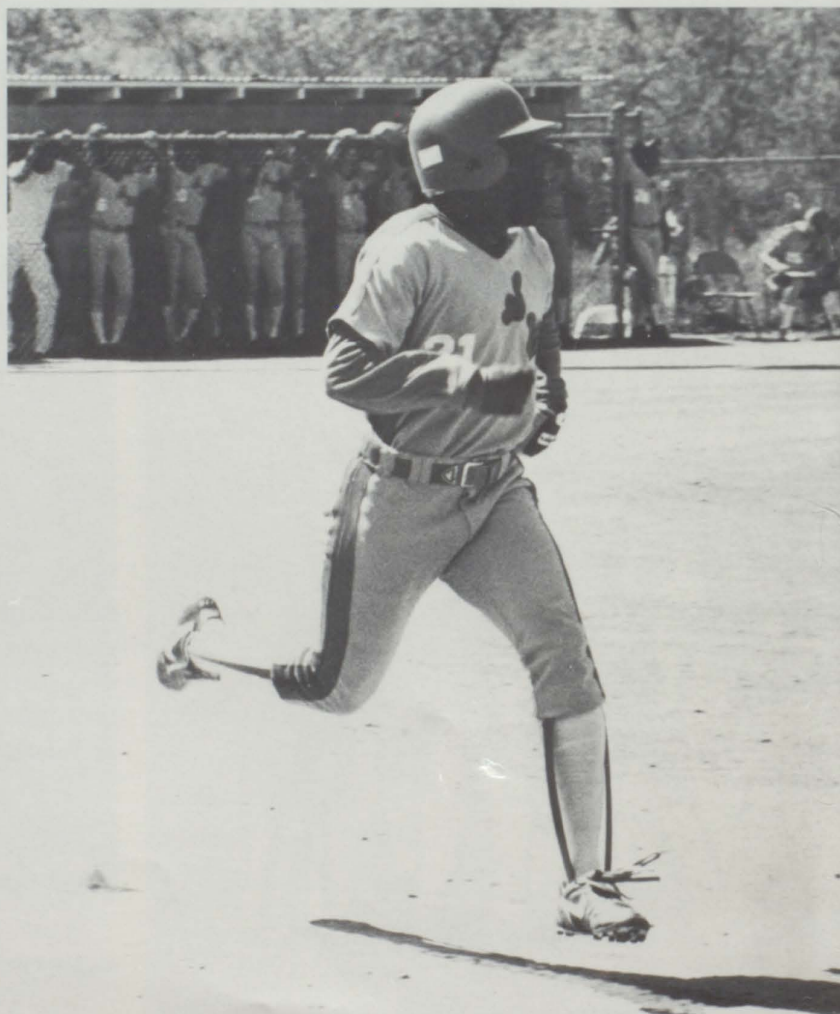

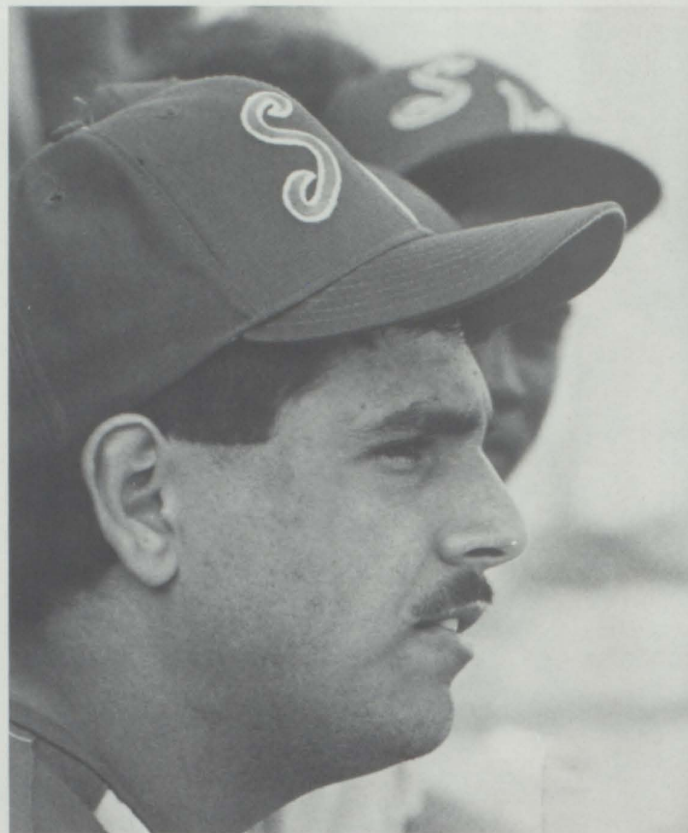

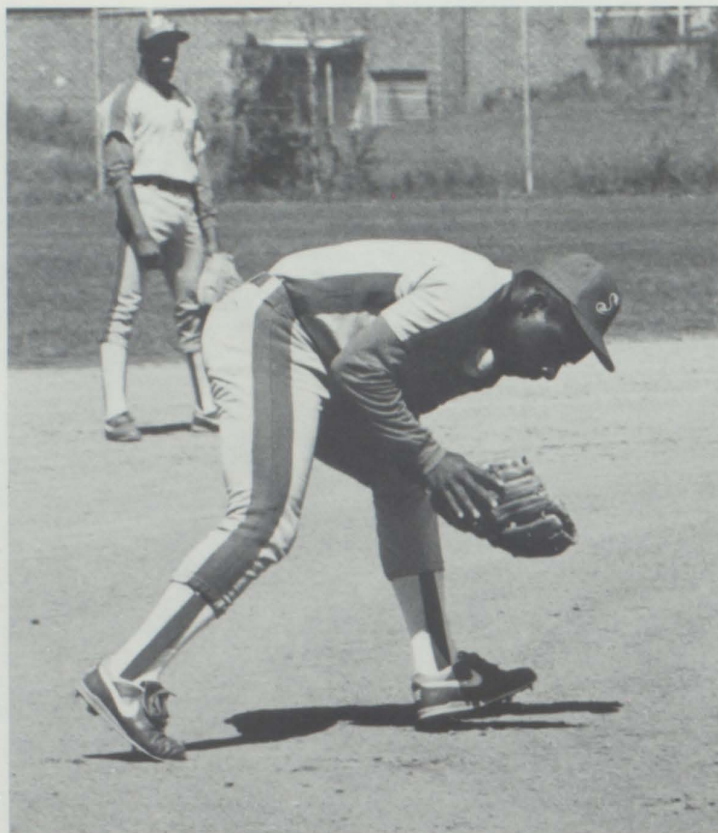

Hard Hitters

The Varsity Baseball squad, under the leadership of Coach Edgar Hatcher, ended the year at an even 6-6 record in the region. The season featured two wins against Southeast and a two game sweep of regional foe, Baldwin. Perhaps the greatest thrill was the victory over Northside. Trailing 1-0 in the top of the seventh and Northside's ace on the mound, things looked bleak. Then Marcus Dupree hit a three-run homer to win the game 3-2.

Rainy Season

The Jr. Varsity Team led by Coach Grube ended the season with a record of 2 wins and 3 losses. It was a unique season for the Patriots. Both wins were against Northside and the losses were to Central, while the remaining games were cancelled due to rainy weather.

Diamonds in the Rough

The Ninth Grade Baseball Team with Coach John Matthews holding the reigns made great improvement in the fundamentals of the game. Even though their record was not outstanding, the players learned more than baseball, they learned the basics of the game as well as good sportsmanship. The team's best showing was in their last game of the season when they won over Northeast with a score of 5-3. The experience these players gained this year will prove beneficial to SW in future years.

TRACK

RIGHT ON TRACK

The girls' varsity track team consisted mostly of ninth graders. In spite of the "youthfulness" of the team, they took second place in the Statesboro relay. The girls placed third in the Coca-Cola Invitational with Albertina Taylor winning the 880 meter race. The girls ranked Third in the Region at the end of the season. Led by the efforts of Tonya Woolfolk's win of both the 100 and 200 yard dash. Stephanie Walker won both shot put and the discus throw, thus qualifying the team for state competition. In Albany, Walker won third place in shot put.

FLEET FEET

The 1988-89 Varsity Track Team improved greatly this year. The Patriots took first place from Peach County and Southeast. They also won first place at a meet against Northeast and Southeast. The track athletes won second place in two other meets this year.

In the Bibb Coca-Cola meet, Southwest placed fourth out of eighteen teams. They also placed fourth in the Statesboro relays and in Region 4AAAA. The athletes who advanced to the state finals were Jack Parks, Ramsey Hakeem, Johnathan Avery and Gabriel Harmon. The highlight of the Patriots mile relay team was finishing third place in the state.

Young Athletes of Tomorrow

The Ninth Grade Track Team was a promising group of young athletes. Coached by Haywood Simmons, the Patriot runners opened their season by winning their first meet against Central. Their winning season continued in their next two meets, first against Northeast, then against Central. The Patriots took both meets, then went on to beat Southeast. In the All City Meet, the Patriots continued to excel. First place winners were A. Mallory in the 440 yard dash, P. Smith in the discus throw and E. Bivins in the 880 yard dash.

FORE!

Coach Richard Plagge's golf team enjoyed the cool spring weather as they played through the various courses at Northside, Evans, and their home course, Bowden. The team played well and won several of their matches. This young group represented Southwest very well out on the "greens." Senior team members, Jason Napier and Kevin Kendricks will have free time to pursue their sport after graduation. Who knows, perhaps one of these young men might be a future Arnold Palmer or Jack Nicklaus!

TOP : Golf Team Members: Windle Johnson, Jeffrey Marshall, Jason Napier, Kevin Kendrick, Chad Cooper. BOTTOM : Chad Cooper powerfully addresses the golf ball. Standing tall, Jeffrey Marshall quizzically asks, "Do I really have to replace the divits??"

First City Champs

The Southwest Varsity Soccer team had an outstanding squad in the sport's first year in Bibb County Public Schools. Jack Reinerth coached this young team to a record of five wins and one loss. What they lacked in experience, they made up for in drive. In the first game, Southwest defeated Southeast 7 to 1, with Scott Reinerth scoring 5 goals. The first goal scored in the history of Bibb County Soccer came from Chris Black. Chris has a wooden leg, but has played soccer at the recreational level for ten years. Southwest lost the second game of the season to Central, 2 to 1. This was their only loss as they went on to win their last four games, defeating the Chargers 2-1 to win the first-ever city championship.

TENNIS

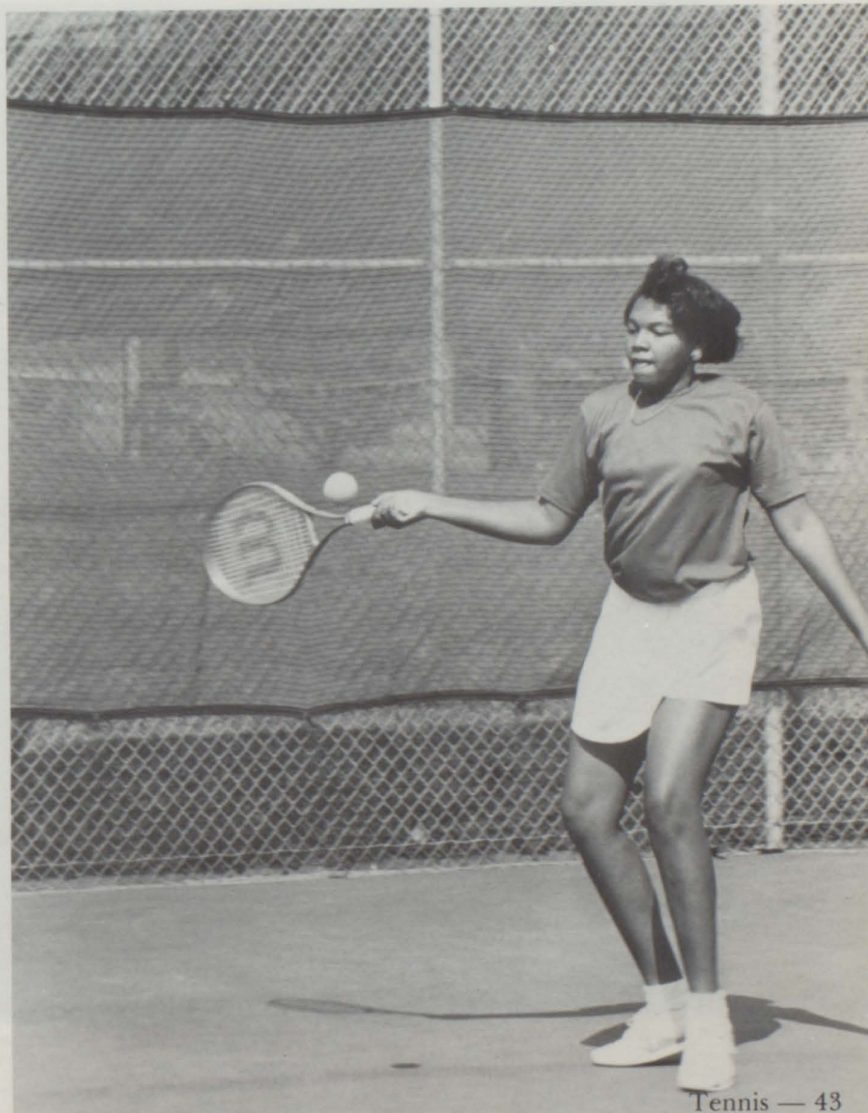

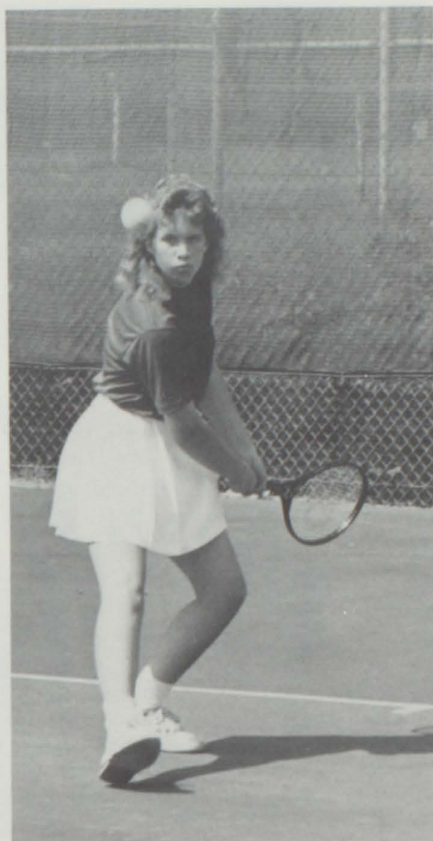

SW Wimbledon

The Southwest Tennis team may be young, but they made up for it with effort. Robbie Romeiser was the toughest player on the Boy's Team. Robbie made a good showing, losing to the Region champ in the first round of play in the Regionals.

Lisa Howard and Heloise Belarmino advanced to the semi-finals of Region 2AAAA by winning three straight matches. No tennis team from Southwest has ever advanced to this level. The girls had a good record of 4-4.

CHEERLEADERS

Backbone of SW Spirit

Through enthusiastic spirit, the Varsity Cheerleaders continued to demonstrate strong support and love for Southwest. At UGA's Cheerleading Camp, along with their advisor, Mrs. Kris Stembridge, they received an Award of Excellence and two Spirit Sticks. An addition to the squad was David Wilson, a male cheerleader. These hard workers are truly the backbone of Southwest's spirit.

Patriotized!

The 1988-89 Junior Varsity and Ninth Grade cheerleading squads had an exciting year. Junior Varsity and Ninth grade squads also helped make the pep rallies great. New Leadership on the Southwest Campus

Southwest had several changes in its administrative staff at the beginning of the 1988-89 school year. Mr. Gerald Stuart succeeded Mrs. Gloria Washington as complex principal. Serving as Assistant Principals at Willingham B are Mrs. Jackie Richardson and Mr. Jesse Mays. Ms. Eleanor Sikes also joined the team as an Associate Principal For Instruction at Willingham B. Mr. Charles Rogers replaced Mr. Roger Green as vocational supervisor due to the retirement of Mr. Green in the latter part of January.

Serving in Willingham A are Dr. Columbus Watkins, Principal and Mr. John Grenga, Assistant Principal. As the new Southwest Complex principal, Mr. Gerald Stuart does not feel his new job is any more difficult than his previous position as building principal of McEvoy A. With the added responsibilities of this job, however, it is demanding in many other ways. Mr. Gerald Stuart has strong ties to the school; he has served Southwest High School since 1979 and both his daughters graduated from the school. Mr. Gerald Stuart knows what the Spirit of Southwest means.

Leading the Bibb County Public Schools is Superintendent Dr. Thomas E. Hagler. Dr. Hagler has served as superintendent for eight years. A new addition to the Bibb County School System is Dr. Thomas Madison who replaced retired Dr. Robert Williams as Deputy Superintendent. In charge of Secondary Education is Mr. William E. Bell, Assistant Superintendent. These educators work hard to guarantee that Bibb County schools continue to strive for excellence.

Opposite Page: Gerald Stuart, Complex Principal-B.S., Ed.S.; Roger Green, Vocational Supervisor-B.A., M.Ed.(Retired); Eleanor Sikes, Associate Principal for Instruction-B.A., M.Ed., Ed.S.; Jesse Mays, WB Assistant Principal-M.A., B.S., M.Ed., Ed.S. Above: Dr. Columbus Watkins, WA Principal-B.S., M.Ed., Ed.S., Ed.D.; John Grenga, WA Assistant Principal-A.B., M.Ed., Ed.S.; Thomas Hagler, Superintendent of Bibb County Public School-B.A., M.Ed., Ed.S., Ph.D.; Thomas Madison, Deputy Superintendent-B.A., Ed.S., Ph.D.; William Bell, Assistant Superintendent-Secondary Schools-B.S., M.A., Ed.S. Not pictured: Jackie Richardson, WB Assistant Principal-A.B., M.A.T., Ed.S.; Charles Rogers, Vocational Supervisor-B.A., M.A., Ed.S.

Lifestyles of the not-so Rich or Famous

Yes, it's true! Teachers are real people, too. Teachers do much more than make out tests, grade papers, teach classes, and answer questions. Annual Staff dug deep into the private lives of the not-so-rich-and-famous in an attempt to portray the people as the fun individuals that they really are.

Twice a week Ann Fugate and Eleanor Sikes take an aerobics class under the leadership of Ruthie Traylor. Archery enthusiasts Virginia Phillips and Joey Givens shoot competitively and in hunting. Outdoor sports such as fishing and camping are enjoyed by Carol Taylor. India Cater has developed quite a backhand — outside her classroom. Middle Georgia Historical Society President, Jim Barfield takes great pleasure in the restoration of his house which is on the National Historical Register.

Businesswoman, Randy Wilson's Attach Paks are sold to doctors and hospitals all over the southeast.

John King enjoys playing basketball with some of the students after class. Southwest also has the first female football coach in this area, Iris Hill.

Dannah Graham and Bitsy Phillips collect pigs of all shapes and sizes. Kris Stembridge kayaks and mountain climbs. Carolyn Johnson spends every available moment fishing. Doris Wellborn enjoys flower gardening. Judy Moore rings bells — handbells — at her church.

Trudy Norris and Nina Anderson like to read and travel. Betty Stewart-Crossan enjoys crafts and being "Grandma."

The Best Excuse Given By a Student for not having Homework

My bird ate it.

I was on my way to school, and a stranger saw the great piece of art work I had done and paid me $150.00.

My book got locked in the car.

My little brother colored on it.

My little brother threw it down the toilet.

I made an airplane out of my homework and it was hijacked on my way to class.

My homework was impounded by the police.

It rained this morning and the words washed off my paper.

You did not tell us to do any homework. You said to "look" at it, and that's exactly what I did.

While I was doing my math homework, there was a sudden knock on the door of my home. I went to the door, and there stood the Libyan leader Muammar el-Qadhafi. Qadhafi ordered me to give up my most prized possession or lose my life. Therefore, I felt I should give up my math homework for my country. That's why I did not have my homework.

I thought it was our assignment for next quarter.

My goat ate it. (This was later found to be a true statement.)

I had to go to the hospital.

When I went to the page you assigned, it was torn out.

The batteries went dead in my solar calculator.

Just as I was about to do my homework, the power went out.

Ms. Hill concentrates during a football game. John "Santa" Mathews shows his Christmas spirit.

“Twelve Days of Christmas” — Faculty Style

The faculty gave the Class of '89 the gift of laughter for Christmas with their performance of the “Twelve Days of Christmas.” Under the direction of Ms. Hill, the teachers brought the house down as birds called, turtle doves cooed, pipers piped, and lords left over each other. Not only were the actions of the actors hysterical, but also the simple fact that the actors were teachers. The seniors roared with laughter each time Ms. Wilson tried to hula-hoop the “five golden rings” and chuckled when Mrs. Bell waddled on to the floor laying an egg. It was the funniest performance ever by the faculty and will be remembered by all seniors long after graduation.

Staci Bell and Tracie Jones have one thing in common: they both love stuffed animals. Together, their collections include a variety of bear objects and over a hundred stuffed animals, which take up most of the space in their rooms.

Stacie began her collection when she was young.

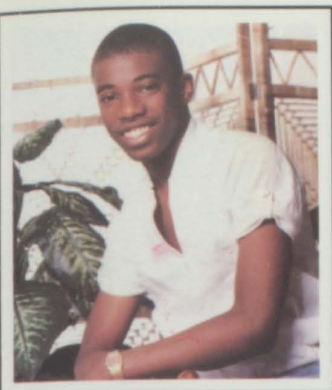

She has over a hundred stuffed "critters" and cannot go into a toy store without checking the bears.

Tracie began collecting about three years ago after a visit to the Atlanta Zoo and plans to add to her collection after high school.

Need an expert on Batman? Superman? Spiderman? How about Archie and Veronica? If it's a question about a comic character, Darnie Glover is Southwest's resident expert! He's got all the answers.

Inspired by the illustrations, Darnie began collecting comics. Although he has not been a collector for very long, Darnie has almost 500 books in his collection, including first edition copies of the Dark Knight Series and Secret Wars. "Once you begin collecting, it's very hard to stop!" says Darnie, who spends about half of his income on his hobby. Darnie keeps his comics in plastic packages, carefully filed by titles in a huge box. He has many of the best productions by D.C., Marvel and others. He is working hard in art classes hoping one day to write and illustrate his own comics.

"Swing Your Partner, Do-Si-Do" are very familiar words to Allison Nix. Influenced in the seventh grade by her "4-H Club," Allison has been actively square dancing ever since. She says, "Dancing takes a lot of my free time." But, Allison also agrees that the rewards are well worth the hard work. She has been able to dance in states other than Georgia, such as Texas and California. Allison has won many awards for square dancing. She has also danced on floats in parades, including Macon's own Cherry Blossom Festival and Christmas Parades.

Who is that clown with the crazy colored costume and funny nose? It's Missy Williams!

Missy's interest in clowning began as part of a special ministry at her church. As a clown, Missy goes to hospitals, prisons, children's homes, and other churches to perform.

Missy believes there is more to clowning than just being funny. "Clowns have a responsibility to make people laugh and feel good." A clown's appearance helps express her personality. To Missy, seeing joy on the faces of others is worth all the hard work.

Together, Allen Freeman and Robbie Guest have over fifteen years in Scouting. Although they share many kinds of activities, these two Boy Scouts have very different interests.

Robbie became interested in Scouts in 1981. Robbie spearheaded the District Winter Camporee and will serve as Third Assistant Scoutmaster for the local contingent attending the 1989 National Scout Jamboree.

Allen has achieved Scouting's highest rank — Eagle Scout. Because of the success of his Eagle project, Allen was selected 1987 Youth of the Year.

Allen has attended the National Jamboree and Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico.

Both enjoy meeting scouts from other states and exchanging patches. They agree that scouting has influenced their lives.

Keith Holt and David Wilson are addicted — to water sports! For Keith, surfing is more than just fun and games. Surfing since the age of ten, Keith has entered and placed in several contests. Living in Macon limits his surfing time, but Keith finds as much time as he can for “free”, or “soul” surfing. David tried skiing seven years ago with the encouragement of his uncle. David skis regularly during the warm months and even skis once or twice a month during the winter. His dream is to one day ski “the Gardens”!

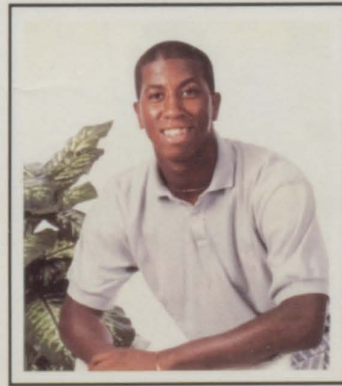

"Down the runway, turn, strut, turn, smile, cameras flashing . . ." The future looks bright for high fashion model Felissa Hale. She began modeling at age eleven when she participated in her first fashion show. Since then, Felissa has worked toward her career goal by attending the Barbazon School of Modeling in Atlanta. Encouraged by family and friends, Felissa has modeled for stores in Atlanta, as well as stores in the Macon Mall.

After graduation, Felissa plans to attend college to pursue a career in Fashion Marketing and Business.

"I'd like to have a room full of clowns from all over the world!," says clown collector Tonia Moore. Tonia has been collecting clowns for several years since she saw her first ones in a store window. Her collection includes tiny two inch tall figures and one which is one and one-half feet tall. Some of her clowns have large smiles while others have sad faces. Tonia loves them all. Tonia plans to increase her clown "family" in the future as she pursues a career in radiology technology — a career in which you cannot "clown around."

1988-1989 Superlatives

From the lively spectrum of Southwest stands a select group of sixteen — the superlatives of the Class of 1989. Chosen by their peers, they exemplify the high standards of the school through spirit, pride, and leadership. These innovative trend-setters, bright minds, and outgoing basketball stars are our future Marilyn Monroes, Einsteins, and Michael Jordans. Each person emanates a special spark which, when united, lights up the entire Senior Class. Thus, the Spirit of '89 offers congratulations to these outstanding Seniors.

Best Personality — Ray Jackson and Heloise Belarmino; Most Spirited — David Wilson and Iris Lavant; Most Athletic — Ivano Newbill and Stephanie Walker; Most Likely To Succeed — Marcelles Prather and Andra Davis; Most Academic — Robbie Guest and Pattie Kim; Best All Around — Brad Marchman and Nikki Golar; Best Dressed — Reginald Bonner and Daphne Wynes; Most Popular — Darren Willis and Tashia Livingston.

Sidney Lanier Cottage

Sidney Lanier Cottage is the birthplace of the great American poet Sidney Clopton Lanier. The park in front of the house is named for him and contains a marker and live oak trees, reminiscent of his poem "The Marshes of Glynn." Headquarters, Middle Georgia Historical Society.

*There comes a time to say goodbye.
 A time which makes a grown man cry.
 A time to laugh, a time to cheer,
 For things which happened throughout the year.
 You'll remember friends close and dear.
 Friends you've come to know and love,
 And trust things known but to God above.
 But two special friends you'll always cherish
 Memories of who will never perish.
 Your best friend with whom you've shared the most
 And the true love of which you'll always boast.
 The one who made those special years
 Until you parted with tears.
 The memories of whom will never fade.
 The dreams you had and the plans you made
 We'll meet again another year.
 We'll reminisce, we'll joke and cheer.
 For the times we've had both good and bad,
 Will always leave us happy, never to be sad.*

When Quality Counts

Seems like almost everybody wants to come to MERCER.

LOCAL RESIDENTS get a whopping 35% savings! High school graduates from Bibb, Houston, Jones, Twiggs, Peach, Crawford and Monroe counties automatically qualify for Mercer's $1503 a year tuition grant. Macon College graduates, Middle Georgia College graduates, and adults age 30 and over also qualify. We also offer Financial Aid and Academic Scholarships Packages.

PLUS STATE GRANT. Area high school graduates who are residents of the State of Georgia also receive a yearly $900 grant for attending a private institution. In all, area students can attend Mercer for 35% less.

SAVE HUNDREDS MORE YEARLY. As a student living at home and commuting to Mercer, you save you and your family hundreds of dollars normally spent on long distance travel, residence hall rent, cafeteria costs, and all the other "away-to-college" expenses.

DIVERSITY WITHOUT THE CROWD. Mercer University is one of the most diversified private Universities in the Southeast. Macon Campuses: • Liberal Arts • Business and Economics • Engineering • Law • Medicine.

Best Excuse for Being Late to School

My watch stopped.

Overslept — I had to finish my dream.

My mom lost her glasses, and I had to become her seeing-eye dog.

Thought the Russians had invaded the U.S. and assumed that all the roads would be blocked

Hit an ant in the road and attended its funeral

My mom had to finish my homework.

The bus ran out of gas.

Thought it was Saturday

The policeman said it would only take a minute.

First Impressions of SW

It's so crowded — you can't get to class on time!

I think I'm lost.

I just love the place.

It was like a zoo, I just knew I'd see Willie B.

Girls, Girls, Girls!

The cute guys!

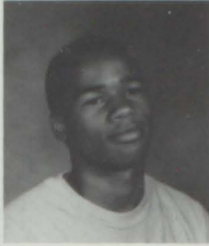

It's scary

Every time you turn around somebody is trying to sell you something.

ORGANIZATIONS

BETA

Outstanding Service to the Community

The 88-89 school year was a rewarding one for the Southwest Beta Club. Even though three advisors and a good portion of the club went to our sister school, the Beta Club had another banner year.

During the year, the Beta Club participated in many activities. In October, the club brought goodies for the teachers' lounges during American Education Week. Beta participated in Military Mail Call, sending cards and letters to men overseas, who couldn't come home for the holidays. Once again the Southwest Beta Club had more letters than any other Beta Club in the nation. At Easter, the club then prepared Easter baskets for nursing home residents and collected personal hygiene items for the Macon Rescue Mission.

The major event of the year was the State Beta Convention in Atlanta in February. With the help of 55 delegates, Lisa Herring ran an excellent campaign and came away with the title of State Vice-President. Southwest was also represented well in various other competitions. At the Beta Banquet outstanding Beta accomplishments and Senior members were recognized.

Wilder. Beta Advisors: Judy Moore and Gwendolyn Bell. Beta Officers: President — Brad Marchman, Vice President — Lisa Herring; Secretary — Sonya Jackson; Treasurer — Nikki Golar.

Triumphant!

In a year filled with community activities and the election of Lisa Herring as State Beta Vice-President, the banquet was a fitting end to a super year. Later, in June, the members went to Orlando, Florida, for the National Beta Convention to secure yet another victory — the election of Lisa as National Vice-President.

Following dinner was the presentation of awards. After various awards were presented for projects throughout the year, Lisa Herring was recognized for having been elected State Vice-President and Amy Fincher won the Richard Dunlap Star Award for having the highest score on the S.A.T. During this award presentation a slide show of Amy's life was shown. The Senior Spotlight was next where each Beta senior was recognized for their achievements throughout high school. The presentation of the Beta Beagle Awards (for a funny or embarrassing moment) was made by Judy Moore. The evening concluded with a slide show, arranged by Miss Moore, of the Betas' past year.

SPANISH

El Club Maravilloso

The Spanish Club, led by new Spanish teacher at Southwest, Barbara Glover, began its year by attending the Spanish Dance Folklorica at Mercer. Inspired by pleas on the radio, members wrote heart-felt messages in Spanish to "Child's Last Wish" — where a terminally ill boy in Florida wanted to get into The Guinness Book of World Records for getting the most Christmas cards. Sadly, it turned out to be a hoax.

Latin on the Move

Led by President Amy Fincher and Vice President Wanda Cox, the Latin Club provided Thanksgiving dinner for needy families. They also generously supplied a month's worth of groceries for families in need. The members dined at Leo's Restuarant to experience different Greek foods. They also participated in the Latin convention at Rock Eagle in April. The club ended the year in style with a Toga Party.

PATRI-ARTICLE

Brilliance at Work

The staff of the Patri-Article, Southwest's newspaper, had quite an active year. With their advisor, Sue Kalbfleisch, they attended the Georgia Scholastic Press Association workshop in Athens to sharpen their skills. They managed to meet their goal of producing five newspapers this year. To publish these five different issues, the staff had to raise money. They held two fund-raisers, a candy sale in February and a view-scope sale during November. The staff's hard work paid off at an awards luncheon held in April that honored their dedication and good work.

MONTAGE

Creative Genuises!

The Montage staff really worked hard this year. The Literary Magazine's new advisor, Cynthia Carey, worked with the staff and helped them raise money to pay for the expenses of their publication. This was done by selling candy and cakes. For the first time the Montage used a "Senior Spotlight Section" in the magazine honoring the seniors on the staff. The entire staff received recognition at the Creative Arts Festival held at Clayton State College for first place in literary magazines.

MATH TEAM

Mathematical Whizzes

The Math Team, led by captain Robbie Guest, competed throughout the state. Advisors were Carol Taylor, Judy Moore, John King, and Gwen Simmons. In competition against other Bibb County schools, the team placed second, and Jimmy Fordham placed first individually. At Woodward Academy the team ranked sixteenth out of fifty-four teams. Jimmy Fordham placed fourteenth out of the 436 students. The state team was composed of four of the best Math team members, Robbie Guest, Jimmy Fordham, Amy Fincher, and Marcelles Prather.

Issues Pro and Con

Southwest's Debate Team successfully competed in some of Georgia's finest tournaments. They attended many long, hard, and brain smashing tournaments throughout the state. Southwest took second place in the Jr. Varsity Division. Represented by Senior Anthony Brown and Sophomore Jennifer Dunlap in Warner Robins, Southwest placed second in diction and Anthony Brown was also announced fifth place. In October, Southwest competed in one of the biggest tournaments of the year. Successfully represented by Seniors Maria Hamlin and James Mays in the Novice division, Southwest won four rounds out of five. Southwest was also represented by Anthony Brown and Jennifer Dunlap, who won two out of three rounds in the varsity division.

SCIENCE CLUB, ACADEMIC TEAM

Academic Excellence

The Science Club is not one of the largest groups on campus, but the possibility of a future Einstein is real. The club participated in the National Chemistry Olympiad where Jimmy Fordham won 1st Honors and Chad McDonald received an Honorable Mention. Members joined with others in the March of Dimes Walk-a-thon.

The Academic Team "held its own" in each of the competitions in which it participated this year. These dedicated students and their advisor, Jim Barfield, practiced each Wednesday afternoon in preparation for meets in Macon and Georgia Southwestern. Chad McDonald and Jimmy Fordham were chosen to travel to Jacksonville, Florida as members of the County Team. Southwest's Academic Team reflects the true spirit of competition as well as the spirit of Southwest.

OCTAGON

Strives For Greatness

Like all clubs at Southwest, the Octagon Club was involved in many school and community activities. The Octagon Club, advised by Mrs. Le-Ann Raby, did an outstanding job of serving the community. They gave a Halloween party for the residents of the Macon Health Care Home. This was followed with fruit baskets at Christmas and Valentine cards and candy in February. The club also made gifts for the faculty during Teacher Appreciation Week. It turned out to be a wonderful year for this small, but active club.

Keying In The Future

The Southwest Computer Club, under the leadership of John King, started off the year early with a service project. Before school even began, they printed out the schedules for the teachers in Willingham A. Their main goal this year was to go to Disney World, Busch Gardens, and Boardwalk and Baseball. Through hard work, the members completed the necessary fundraisers to go on the trip. The club's activities were not only on campus, but also in the community.

LEO

Serving the Community

The Leo Club started out strong this year by preparing a Halloween Party for the students at the Academy for the Blind. The party was fun and enjoyed by both the Leos and the blind children. The Leo Club, co-sponsored by the Lions Club, helped serve a pancake breakfast at the YWCA to raise money to buy glasses for the Blind Academy. They also participated in the JDF Diabetes Walk. Competing with Leo Clubs throughout the state for the club with the most services provided to the community, the Southwest chapter placed first.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Heavy Metal

For the Industrial Arts Club, big does not necessarily mean better. Members of this small club began the year with a candy sale, which was a great success. They also sold during one week in April, raising needed funds while also feeding the hungry Southwest students.

During the spring, they attended the Georgia Industrial Arts Student Association Convention in Atlanta. It was a great way for them to display their talents as well as learn about the various opportunities for careers in the field of Industrial Arts. Along with their club advisor, Mr. Norman Smith, this club made the most of yet another year at Southwest High School.

FFA CLUB

Bumper Crop

The FFA Club, advised by Erik Thompson, had a very busy calendar this year. The club participated in many activities. They held their annual Christmas plant sale in which they sold poinsettias to students and teachers on the campus. They also participated in a variety of projects such as the State Market Hog Show and the State Fair Hog Show. The club took an active part in the Forestry field day. They lent their services in the Cherry Blossom Festival. The Future Farmers attended National FFA week festivities. Overall, it was a very busy year for the Future Farmers of America.

COSMETOLOGY

Career Planning

This year, with the help of advisor, Ms. Susan Childs, the Cosmetology club was reestablished at Southwest. To join the club, the students must be in the cosmetology class. The main purpose of the club is to explore the different job opportunities that are available to students. At the beginning of the year, Mrs. Knight, a representative from the Macon Beauty School spoke to the club about the opportunities available in this field. They held their club banquet at Shakey's Pizza Restaurant. Mr. Gerald Stuart was the guest speaker.

FHA I

Setting the Pace For the Future

The Future Home Makers of America were involved in many different activities this year. They also participated in a spring clean up and held a "sew and show" fashion show in which each member modeled a garment that they had made. The clubs attended the FHA State Convention and the District Meetings. Overall, it was an exciting year for both of the FHA clubs.

S.L.I.M (Southwest Losers, Improvers, and Movers) is a club for students whose purpose is to encourage better nutrition, physical activity, exercise, and sensible weight-loss. The club's program includes guidance in each of these areas, but students are asked to be selective in their participation. S.L.I.M. does not encourage dieting or endorse specific diet plans, formulas, or drugs.

The club's in-school meetings included several guest speakers; Mrs. Olga Norman, school cafeteria manager for WA, shared nutrition information and some delicious oatmeal-raisin cookies. During one of the club meetings the members watched a videotape of the recent "Oprah Winfrey Show" in which she shared her weight-loss program and success. The members were warned not to try a diet program before consulting a physician.

FBLA

Business as Usual

The Future Business Leaders of America continued to serve the community. The group participated in the Savannah Falls Leadership Conference and the Regional Conference Competition in Cochran, Georgia. Then, it was off to Atlanta for the State Convention. For their community service project the club donated a Thanksgiving box to a local nursing home. They also lent their services during Teacher Appreciation Week.

DECA

Future Leaders

The DECA Club, advised by Charles Rogers, participated in a variety of activities. The DECA Club's main purpose is to prepare its members for a career in the field of marketing. Some members went to the Humane Society for three pet therapies, where they helped wash and dry the animals before taking them to a nursing home. They held a Thanksgiving Food Drive, and then delivered the food to the needy people of Macon.

VICA

“Enhancing Leadership”

The VICA Club, advised by Ronald Taylor, teaches members to develop leadership skills through various activities and social events. The club attended competitions in Atlanta. The members participated in area and district competitions held in Hawkinsville and Brunswick. The club also cares about the community. As a community service, VICA held a party for young people at the Unionville Gym.

VOCA

Key To Success

The VOCA Club, advised by Matson Bell, participated in many activities this year. They competed in the Region Four Contest held at Southwest. A few members competed against several hundred other students. At the VOCA State Convention held on St. Simmon's Island, Georgia, Scott Casteel won third place in agriculture. Under the leadership of Karen Dunagen, the club also participated in some fun activities. The club held its Christmas party at Shakey's and a picnic at Lake Tobeesokfee.

Playing The Numbers

Under the guidance of Barbara Jolley, the new advisor, the Mu Alpha Theta opened the year with an Induction Ceremony. After replenishing the treasury, the club focused on projects for the Math Teachers. The club gave them a Christmas party, Valentine's package, and refreshments during Teacher Appreciation Week. The year closed for the club in May with an Awards Banquet.

FRENCH

LANGUE DE AMOUR

Southwest is known for having a wide variety of organizations on its campus. One of these is the French Club. Showing an interest in the language, its members met with the intent of learning more about the language itself, and French culture and lifestyle. Although the club was not as active in some respects as years past, its members worked hard on the activities that came about.

Making A Difference

The goal of Teens Against Pregnancy, sponsored by the AKA Sorority, is to involve themselves as well as other teens in the campaign against pregnancy. With the help of Carline Leonard, the young ladies of this club adopted a family and contributed food and clothing during Thanksgiving and Christmas. In February, the members held a luncheon in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Birthday. Also later that month they held a Sweetheart Dance to provide the TAPS with a night of pleasure and fun.

The Teens Against Pregnancy Club have proven to be an outstanding group of ladies that have exhibited style throughout the school year and in their daily activities.

Y-CLUB

Making It Happen

The Y-Club, one of the new clubs on campus, was very active throughout the year. The club started the year with a Christmas tree decorating project in the WB and WA building lobbies. They also made a visit to the Bloomfield Nursing Home to sing carols and spread cheer to the residents.

The club made signs and greeted guests at the Senior Sports Banquet. Members sponsored a campus clean-up and provided refreshments for teachers during American Education Week. With the cooperation of the members, this club has shown outstanding leadership qualities.

JUST SAY NO

Be Smart, Don't Start!

The Just Say No Club worked hard over the last three years. All of the members were dedicated to making the community drug-free. With the leadership of advisors Coach Appling and Mary Cliett, the club has held several activities to make the society aware of the increasing drug problems. In October, the club held a poster contest to get students involved in the battle against drugs. The posters were displayed throughout the school and hopefully, brought home the danger of drug abuse to Southwest students. In the beginning of December, the club held a balloon sale, which was their biggest fund-raiser ever. In March, they participated in the Cherry Blossom Parade. This was one busy year for Just Say No.

Spirit Prevails

Under the leadership of its new advisor, Geraldine Dumas, the Pep Club continued its tradition of promoting Southwest Spirit with posters and "mourned" at the "funeral" of SW's arch rival Central. Spring was a real "blow-out" for the club as they took their Annual Six Flags over Georgia trip. The bus blew a tire, but thankfully, no one was seriously injured. All in all, it was a fun year for this spirited organization.

PEER COUNSELORS

Lean on Me

The Peer Counselors demonstrated concern for students throughout the year. With the help of advisors Nina Anderson and Lewis Downer, the Peer Counselors accomplished several goals. The Peer Counselors helped make the Ninth Graders feel welcome in their new environment. The students at Southwest were able to lean on each other throughout the year. This is another example of the togetherness at this school.

KEY

Opening Doors

The caring members of the Key Club opened many doors . . . doors to charities, doors to nursing homes, and doors to the patients' hearts. In October, the officers went to the Fall Training Conference where they met fellow Key Clubbers from other schools in the South. There, the officers learned more about the responsibilities of their job and got ideas for new activities for the year. The remaining part of the year was filled with service projects and fund-raisers. The members went to both John Wesley Villas and Bel Arbor Nursing Home to visit with patients. During Christmas, they passed out gifts from the Salvation Army. In February, members of the club went to the Spring Rally. There, Robbie Romeiser was nominated Lieutenant Governor Division Nine. The members not only raised money for the club but also for various charity organizations. They took part in the JDF and the March of Dimes walkathons. In December, they held a fund-raiser in which "Buddy Buttons" were sold. In March, they attended the State Convention at the Macon Hilton. At the convention, Robbie Romeiser was elected as Lieutenant Governor. After the convention, the club began plans for the next Key Club year.

CIVINETTES

A Year Full of Service

The Southwest Civinettes began their busy year with a "Get Acquainted Party" to meet all the girls interested in becoming members. The newly chosen members were immediately involved in many projects that benefited the community.

At the 5th annual "Bill Boyd's Over 75 Birthday Party", they brightened the elderly's day by dancing and serving ice cream and cake. In October, the club helped with the Children's Fun Fair by painting the children's faces, dressing up in costumes, and giving out balloons several times during the year. Civinettes volunteered their time by walking in and making phone calls for the the March of Dimes Walk-a-thon.

The Civinettes were also involved at school. They served as campus guides on Parent/Teacher Conference Day and to show their appreciation they brought "goodies" for teachers on Teacher Appreciation Day. This year the club adopted Harrison Retirement Home. They visited the elderly on the special holidays such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Valentine's Day. The girls said goodbye to their special friends with a party at the end of the year.

CIVITAN

Serving Others

The Southwest Civitan Club had a productive year under the leadership of their new advisor, Rob Andrews. The club members served refreshments and escorted guests at the Annual Bill Boyd's Over 75-Birthday Party.

In October, all the ghosts and goblins came out to help at the Jaycee's Haunted House. Members spread the joy of Christmas as they went through Bellevue Retirement Home passing out bags of goodies. A Civitan tradition continues as members helped the handicapped bowl every week at Gold Cup Bowling Center. As always, the Civitan Club won recognition among the state's Civitan Clubs.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Always on the Move!

Student Council plans activities for the complex under the guidance of Betty Stewart-Crossan. They painted spirit posters for the stadium during football season. At Christmas they addressed and delivered Chocolate Santas to the students. They performed at the class Christmas assemblies.

Student Council activities included Election '88 Assembly, "Close-Up" in Washington, D.C., The MORP and Spring Fling.

ART CLUB

Creative Genius

The Southwest Art Club had an eventful year. Having a Valentines' Day Party for the residents of Harrison Retirement Home was this club's first project. The club returned again to deliver Easter Baskets. They continued to keep busy by painting a mural on a brick wall at a nursing home. Another community project involved painting mile-markers for the March of Dimes Walk-a-thon. In May the club year ended with the Sixth Annual Southwest Art and Photography Show.

DRAMA

On With The Show

The Southwest Drama Club, advised by Dorothy Goodrum, has proven not only their acting ability but their community spirit as well. The Drama Club began their activities on Valentine's Day with a Black History Production held at Hamilton Elementary School. On St. Patrick's Day, the club members displayed their appreciation to the Southwest Faculty by making special treats for them. Their final project for the year was a competition at Macon College against other high school students for the play "Comin' Round the Mountain".

CHORUS

SW Choir Hits High Notes

The magnificent Southwest Concert Choir under the direction of Renee Kimberly captured the interest of everyone this year with its many achievements and performances. The choir began the year with their Holiday Concert and a Christmas Gift Wrap Booth in December. They also participated in the GMEA 11th District Festival where they filled the auditorium with beautiful music, which captured the hearts of many of the judges. The choir had the distinct honor of performing at the Statue of Liberty and Colonial Williamsburg during their New York tour in April.

The Show Choir and the Girls Choir are also under the direction of Mrs. Kimberly. These groups have also displayed their terrific talent in a number of activities and have received many awards.

The three choirs combined their delightful singing during their Spring Concert at the Grand Opera House where they definitely hit high notes. The choir has pleased many with its tradition of beautiful music.

JAZZ ENSEMBLE

Let's do it

"That's a D not an F, 2nd trumpet! ... 1st alto, let's be more aggressive! ... Not so loud rhythm section!" Mr. Jackson's words are hard at times, but his sense for wrong notes and correct sound paid off in the end. When he looked at the "gig" schedule and said "Let's do it," they did. On December 15 the Jazz Ensemble began with the Christmas concert. The band played for the Miss Macon Pageant, the Cherry Blossom Pageant, and the Golden Eagle Awards. The ensemble also performed for the Chamber of Commerce at Mardi Gras. Mardi Gras was one big party with clowns, balloons, and paper hats. The band went back to the Auditorium to perform for the UNCF Ebony Fashion Fair. At Fort Valley St. College, the band received a superior rating in the solo ensemble.

May was the final month. The band was ready. They played at Mercer University "Coop," Art & Jazz Festival at Washington Park, Spring Concert, and the Senior Luncheon. At the ABAC Jazz Festival, the band received a superior rating and best trumpet section. Billy Barron, Matt Miller, and Scott Lawrence were awarded for best solo. What did Mr. Jackson have to say after the band's accomplishments? "The kids had a good time. I had a good time. That's all that counts."

BAND

Superior Performers

Every year the Southwest Band starts out during the summer with a lot of determination and sweaty workouts. This year had even sweatier workouts than ever before.

The band drilled and practiced in almost unbearable temperatures during the summer, striving not only to be the best band in Macon, but the best band ever at Southwest.

The band did not only strive for excellence and superiority during football season, but during concert season as well. The Concert Band earned a rating of Excellent for their performance at the Band Festival this year, and the Symphonic Band earned a rating of Superior at their festival.

Entertainment and Service

Not only does the Southwest Marching Band provide the community with entertainment, they also participated in projects to help the needy. During Christmas season, the band members collected over 200 cans of food for those who were in need.

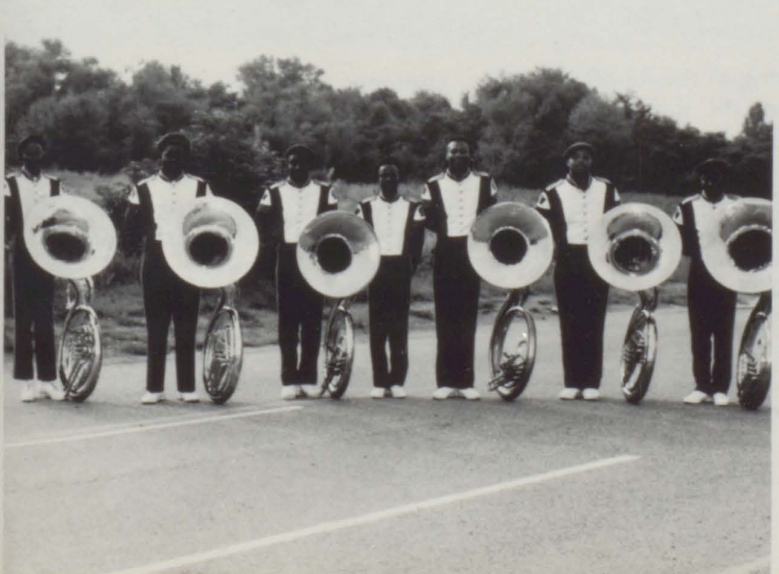

The band made its annual performance in the Thomasville Rose Parade. As a reward for a busy year, Mr. Jackson took the band to Daytona Beach for a little rest and relaxation. Other spring activities for the band included the Don Richardson Appreciation Day Parade and their annual Spring Concert.

PATRIOT MARCHING BAND

At the beginning of the 88-89 year Mr. Oscar Jackson, the dynamic band director of the Southwest Marching Patriots, stated that the word the band would strive for this year would be "awesome," and that's exactly what they were, "Awesome."

Nothing could stop, or stall the band this year, the splitting of Southwest did not really affect the Marching Patriots in size, sound, nor in school spirit. The band filled the football stands with excitement and enthusiasm all year, and cheered the team on to victory at every ball game.

The band's awesome talent was further displayed when they were invited to perform during halftime at the Fort Valley — Kentucky State football game. The band also marched in Tallahassee at the Florida A & M homecoming parade, and at our very own Cherry Blossom Parade in Macon.

STUDENT LIFE

SW Sobfest

Who says you can't have a ball at a funeral? The Southwest Patriots sure did! The student and faculty procession entered the gym. Some carried handkerchiefs and were "filled" with grief. Others, with tear covered faces, wore mourning bands for the Central Chargers. The crowd became involved in a spiritual sermon which led into a hymn started by the choir. The cheerleaders led cheers and the students were ready to explode with spirit. Nobody anywhere can beat that Southwest School Spirit!

Students Learn That Their Vote Makes a Difference

"Duke! Bush! Dukakis! Bush!" These were the enthusiastic cries which filled the Willingham B gymnasium at this fall's Presidential Election Assembly. Balloons, posters, and flags were carried by the supporters of candidates George Bush (Brad Marchman) and Michael Dukakis (Jeffrey Wilder).

Vice-President Bush made a persuasive speech asking the students for their support. Standing proudly at his side was Barbara Bush (Michelle Mayo) showing her support. The crowds cheered loudly when Bush introduced President Ronald Reagan.

A surprise visit from the Rev. Jesse Jackson (Maurice Cobb) brought the crowd to their feet. Rev. Jackson threw his support behind Massachusetts Governor Michael Dukakis as he introduced the Presidential hopeful and Mrs. Dukakis (Patricia Wilder).

Student Council member John Robinson reminded Students of occasions in history when vital decisions were made by one vote. Excited students returned to supervision where they received their ballots and voted for the President. Dukakis took the victory at Southwest. Although the real election sent George Bush to the White House, Southwest students had the opportunity to voice their opinion through the privilege of voting.

Merriment!

"Deck the gym with lots of doughnuts!" That was the mood of the Class of '89 as they packed into the gym for the traditional Senior Christmas Assembly and Party.

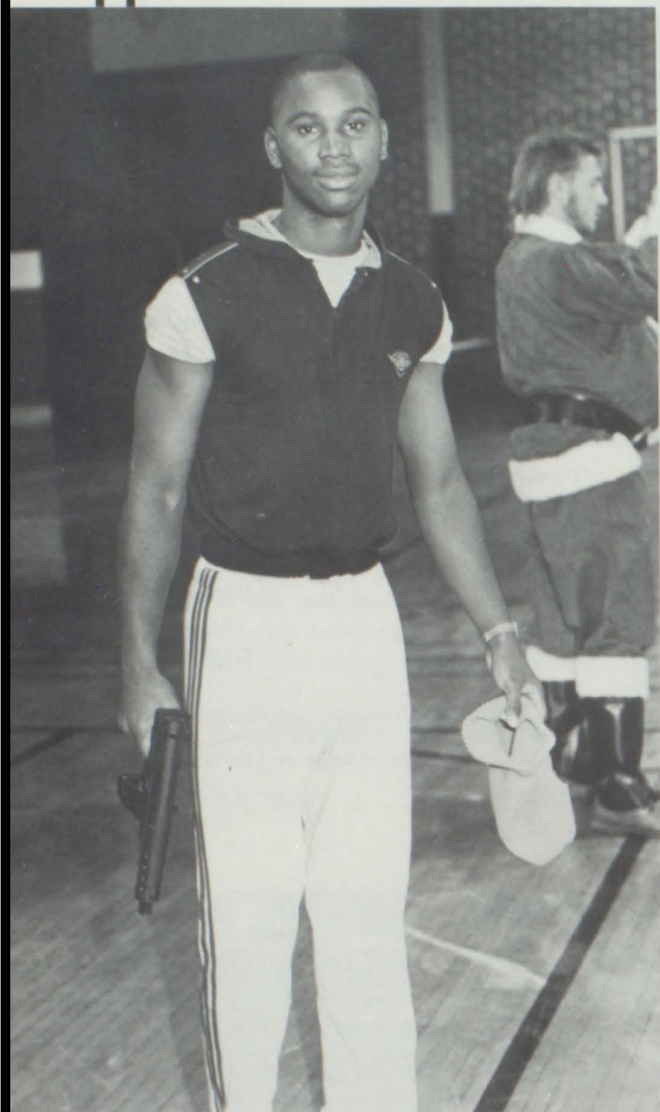

The Seniors gobbled down dozens of doughnuts and cokes. Then, the Senior members of Student Council, with the help of other classmates, performed their skit, "Save Christmas."

The Southwest Faculty performed the "Twelve Days of Christmas." The Seniors were amazed to see that their teachers were actually entertaining them and that everyone was having fun!!!

The remainder of the morning was spent dancing, laughing about the teachers, and of course, exchanging gifts with friends.

1989 Homecoming Court

The night was gloomy due to rain and fog everywhere, except in Henderson Stadium where the air filled everyone with excitement about homecoming. The anxious candidates were all dressed up in tails and taffeta.

The band played "Hey Lover", by Freddie Jackson as the Court was led onto the rain soaked field. Each candidate smiled, despite their nervousness. The anticipation finally quelled as the announcer named Tashia Living- ston, Homecoming Queen and Johnny Mills, Mr. Southwest.

!NWOD TEG (GET DOWN!)

"I can't believe he's wearing a Mexican hat!"

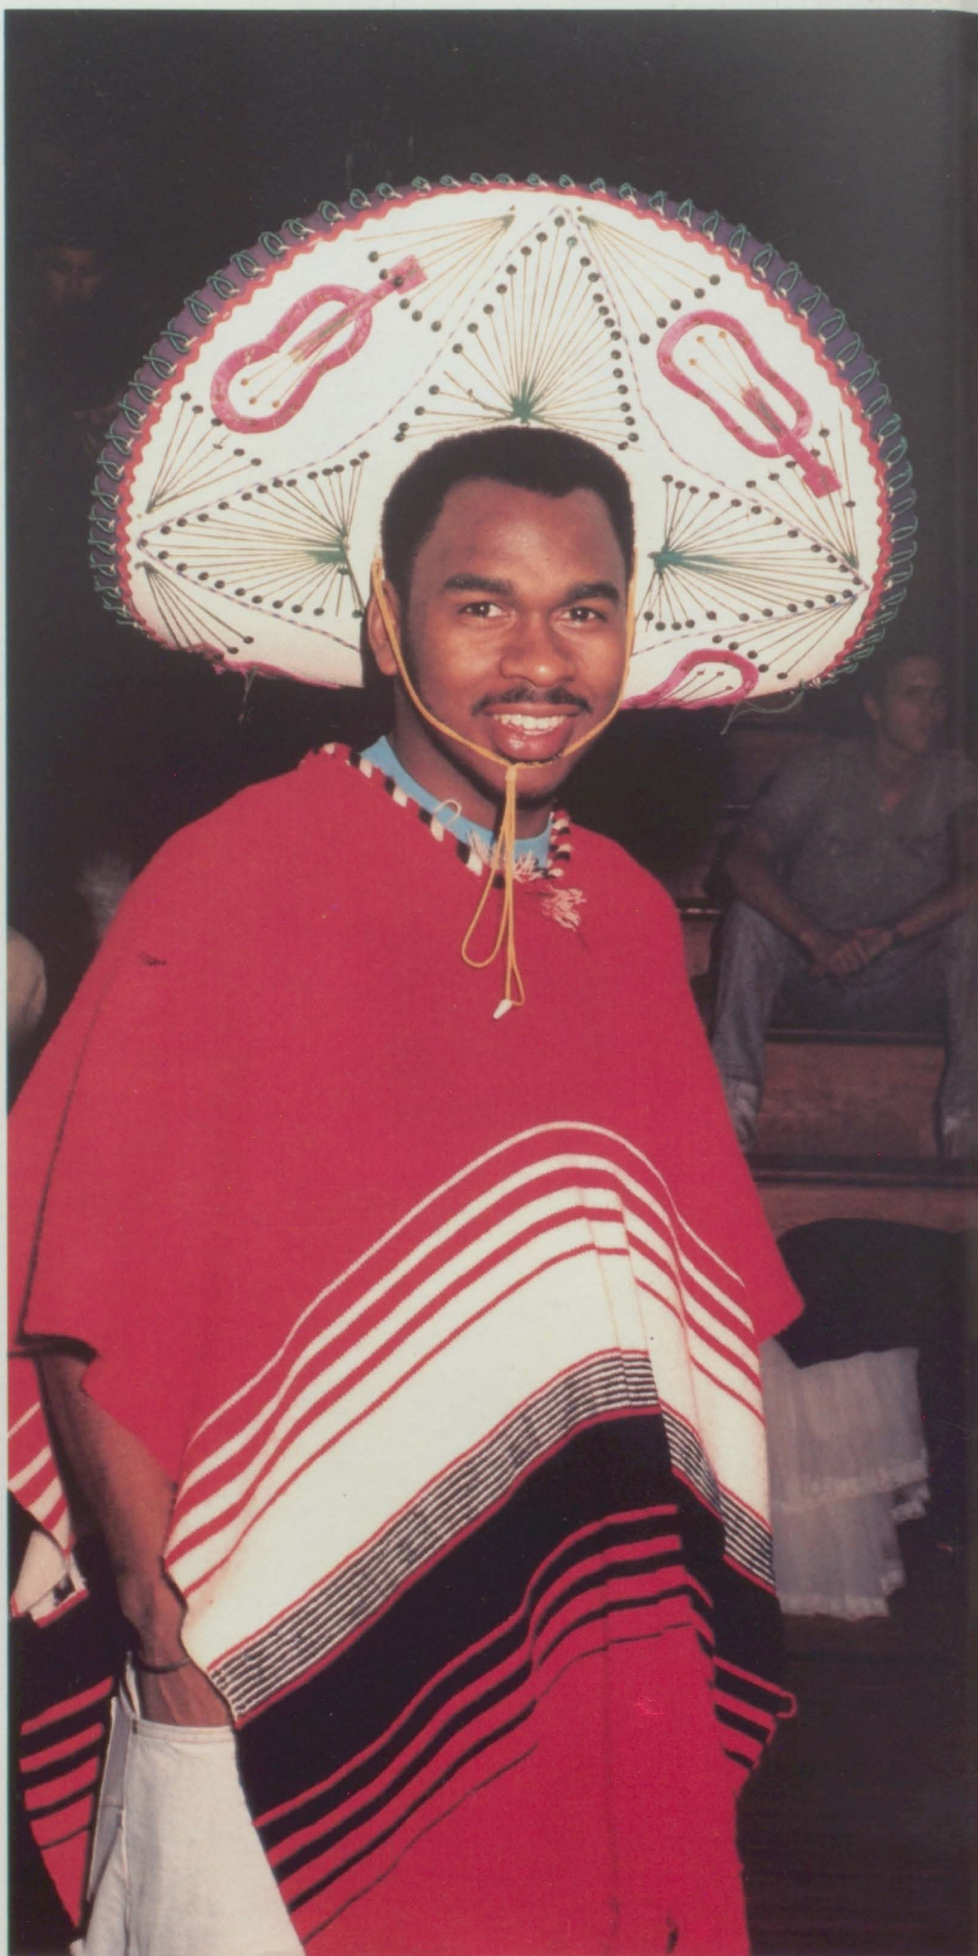

"Look! Her shoes don't match."

These comments along with good natured snickers were heard at the second annual "MORP" dance held in the Willingham B Gym on March 2, 1989.

Just as MORP is PROM spelled backwards, the concept of the entire evening was to present yourself opposite of the way you might be at a prom. Friends and couples came dressed in trashy and mixed-matched attire. Others chose to wear wacky shades and anything that had that "morpish" look. The ambience of the gymnasium was created by good music, not to mention — TOILET PAPER!!! Rolls and rolls of colorful tissue covered the floor and hung from the rafters to set the mood for hours of fun and, of course, DANCING!

Fairytale Beginings: A Dream Come True

Each young lady was filled with nervous anticipation as she waited for the chance to fulfill her childhood dream — to become a Princess. Macon's own Cherry Blossom Pageant provided that opportunity.

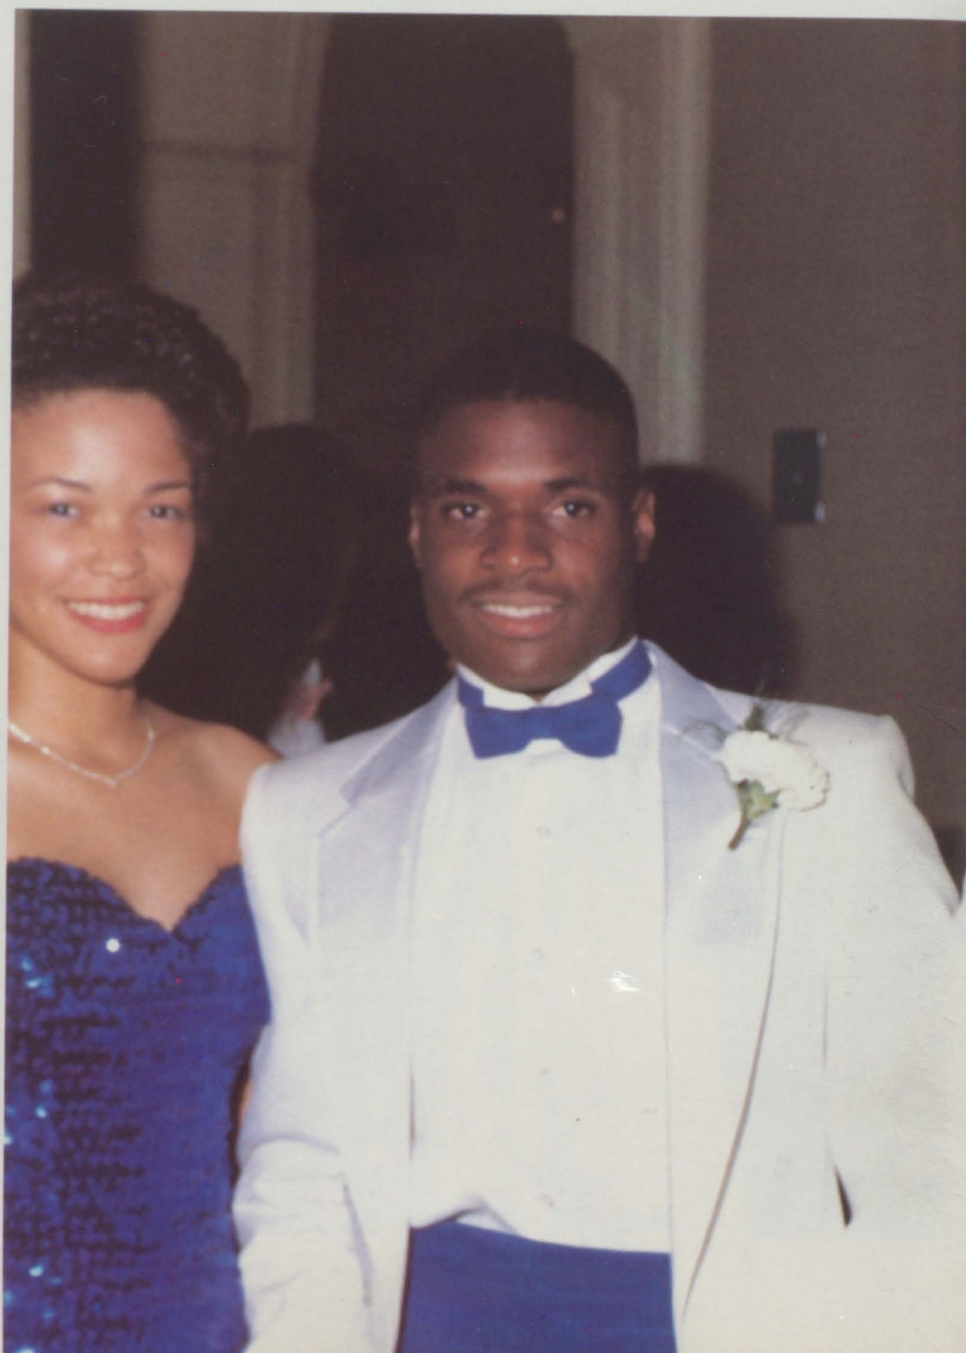

Interviews were held the morning of the pageant. Each contestant faced the judges confident and eager to be liked; they strove to leave the judges with a good impression. Later that evening, the Cherry Blossom Pageant commenced. After the contestants introduced themselves, the most elegant part of the night began. In their most beautiful gowns each contestant told the judges and audience a little about herself. It was difficult for the judges, but at last the decisions were made. Three students from Southwest, Joanna Short, Ardra Davis, and Nikki Golar, received the title of "Miss Cherry Blossom Princess." For these three young ladies, their dream came true.

A WALTZ THROUGH TIME

"Are you going to the prom?"
 "Yes! I'm so excited!"
 "Are you going out to eat?"
 "Yeah, we're going to the Green Jacket. I can't wait!"

"I have so much to do! I have to get my hair done, lie in the tanning; flowers . . . Come to think of it, why am I here? I'm going to check out."

These were the conversations that filled the halls and classrooms on May 19 — PROM DAY! Initially, the day was hot and muggy, but the Patriots carried on. Flower shops, hair salons, and tuxedo rental shops buzzed with anxious students who wanted everything to be perfect.

The diligent Prom Committee worked all day with lights and decorations mystically transforming the Macon City Auditorium into a wonderland of pink and white. Juniors and Seniors spent hours primping and preparing. Finally, the night commenced. Poised couples waltzed into the Auditorium arm in arm — a picture of elegance. Excited couples filled the dance floor as the band played.

When the music stopped, everyone looked toward the stage; Lead Out was about to begin. Junior and Senior Student Council members and their dates glided down the ramp as their names were called. Southwest announced their first Prom King and Queen — Johnny Mills and Heloise Belarmino. The King and Queen began the next dance and were then joined by Student Council members and Seniors as Sheila Bell sang the theme song "One Moment in Time."

On this mystical evening, time stopped ticking as every Junior and Senior had their "One Moment in Time."

Suspended in "One Moment in Time"

The Junior — Senior Prom was a night of glamour and excitement. Limousines lined up in front of the City Auditorium everyone and their dates entered for an evening to remember. Students turned out in great numbers looking more handsome and beautiful than ever. From the band's first set at 8:00 p.m. until the clock tolled midnight, the Auditorium floor was filled by many who had planned May 19, 1989 to be the biggest night of their life.

TOP, LEFT TO RIGHT: Tom Williams and Tarcia Reeze show their pearly whites. Cary Harrington and Ann Baggarly give it their best smile. Sabrina Pitts, Mark Jones, Kandi White, and Patrick Thorpe pose for the camera. BOTTOM, LEFT TO RIGHT: Heloise Belarmino and Johnny Mills are announced Prom Queen and King. Wyndolyn Porter and Mario Johnson make a great combination. Ernie Fields and Dina Green cuddle during the evening.

FASHION CLIPS

Shade It!
Ray Bans were the coolest sunglasses around this summer.

Clamp it!
A wide assortment of wild, colorful hair accessories were used to decorate hair.

Clock it!
From Fossil to Gucci, big-faced watches with wide leather bands were all the rage.

Express it!
Peace signs crept up everywhere, from tie-dyed t-shirts to shiny earrings.

"Ve Vant Your Blood"

December 2, 1988, a vampire's dream date. The tables in the gym stretched out with empty bags waiting to be filled with warm, red blood. "I'm dizzy." "Look at the size of those needles! They must be ten feet long" the students said anxiously. Others bragged, "Ahh man! There's nothing to it." Each student was stretched out on a table. The nurses inserted needles into their "victims" veins. "This will only hurt a moment," they said. "I think they drained me dry!" "How many pints of blood does the human body have, . . . are you sure I still have enough?" When it was over the donors were given Cokes and the heartfelt thanks of the Red Cross for giving the gift of life.

2-AAAA REGION CHAMPS

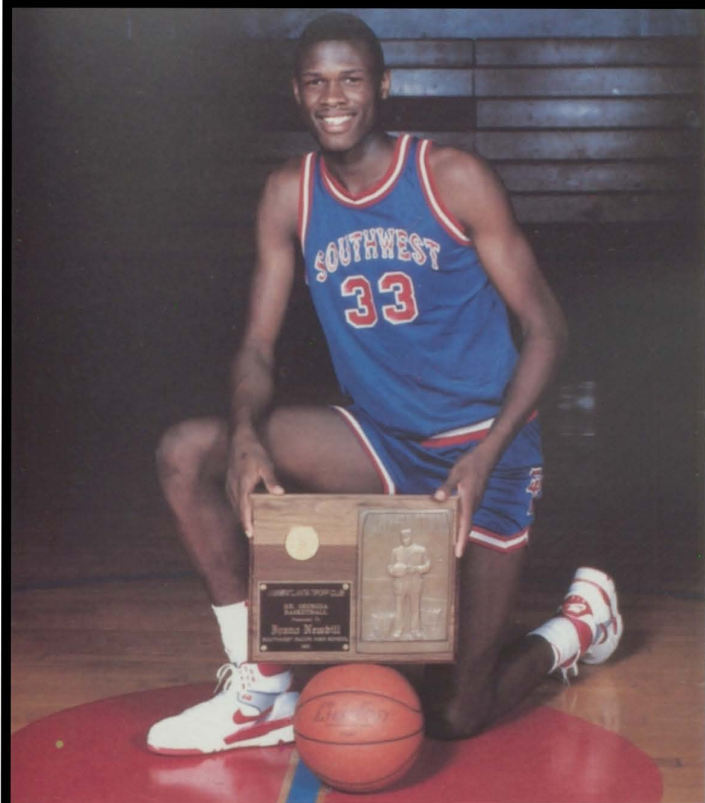

The Southwest Girls Basketball had a very successful year. They finished the season with a 22 — 5 record. The Lady Patriots won first place in the Noon Day Optimist Christmas Tournament and then went on to win the Region 2-AAAA title. This was the first time the Southwest girls had won this title. When the Atlanta Constitution made their final ranking of the top ten teams in the state, the Southwest girls were ranked sixth in the state of Georgia. Leading the '88-'89 Lady Patriots was Stephanie Walker. She was ranked as the number one player on the All-City Team and second on the All-Middle Georgia team. Stephanie made the Noon Day Optimist All-Star Christmas Tournament Team and the Converse All-Star Team. Due to her outstanding performance this year, which included setting a school scoring record of fifty points, Stephanie was selected Player of the Month three times by the Middle Georgia Tip Off Club. Stephanie received a scholarship to play at Pensacola Junior College.

AAAA STATE CHAMPS

In the true tradition of Southwest Basketball the Patriots finished another successful season. They compiled a record of 24 — 5. The highlight of the season was advancing to the final four of the Georgia State Basketball Tournament in Atlanta. Playing before an enthusiastic Southwest crowd, the Patriots defeated Cedar Shoals in the semi-finals and then went on to defeat arch-rival Baldwin for the state championship. Ranked first in the city and the Middle Georgia area, Southwest was now first in the State of Georgia. Leading the team was Mr. GA Basketball, Ivano Newbill. Ivano was also ranked first on the All-City Team and the All-Middle Georgia Team. He was selected Player of the Month twice by the Middle Georgia Tip Off Club and received the Middle Georgia Player of the Year Award. Ivano was selected to play in the Georgia All-Star game and was later named Georgia Player of the Year at the Naismith Awards Banquet in Atlanta. Ivano will continue his basketball career at Georgia Tech.

Spring Hits Full Swing!

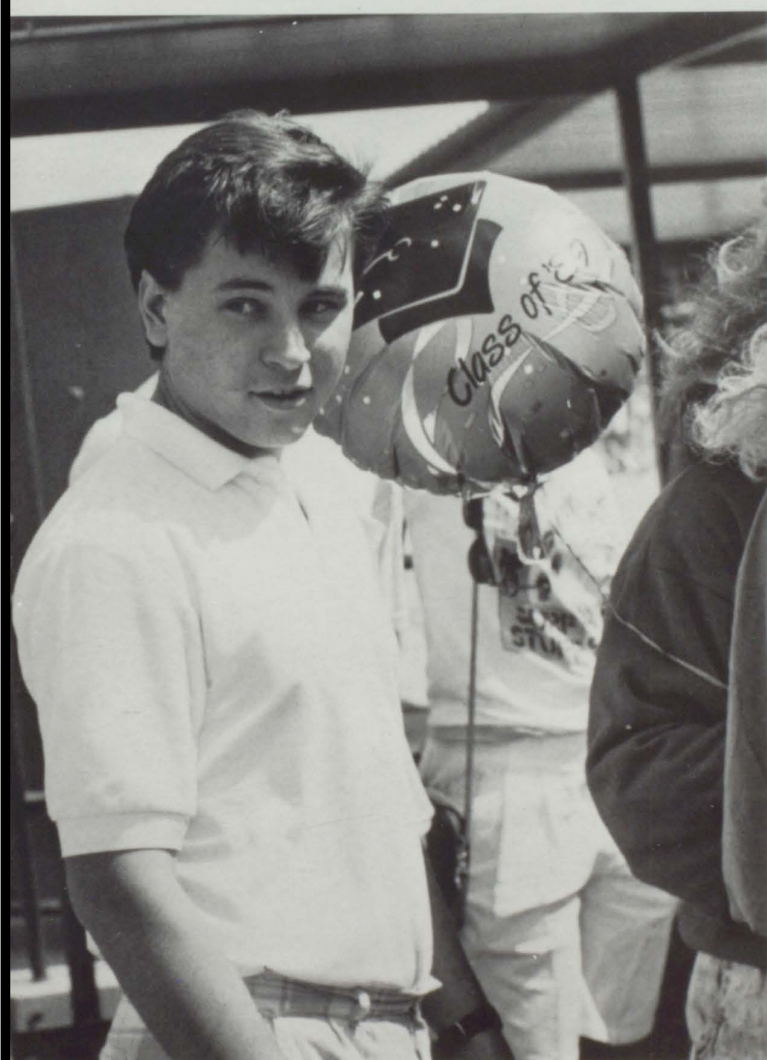

It was spring time at Southwest, and the Patriots were there to welcome it on May 12 with their annual Spring Fling.

Students enjoyed themselves as they visited different booths. One of the more popular booths was the Civinette marriage booth. The Computer Club left a lot of people wet as students got to throw balls at teachers and fellow students in the dunking booth. Perhaps the most exciting event was the Slam-Dunk contest at half time of the intrasquad game the basketball team was playing. Ron Hill and Joe Dupree took away top honors as dunk after dunk thrilled the crowd in the packed gym.

A fun day was enjoyed by all and no one was ready to go back to class. Southwest had pulled off yet another exciting Spring Fling.

“Table Talk”

Southwest's lunch tables were more than places of fine dining; they were the center of social activity, higher learning, and, of course, wholesome interscholastic gossip.

HONORS

Saluting SW's Coach Richardson

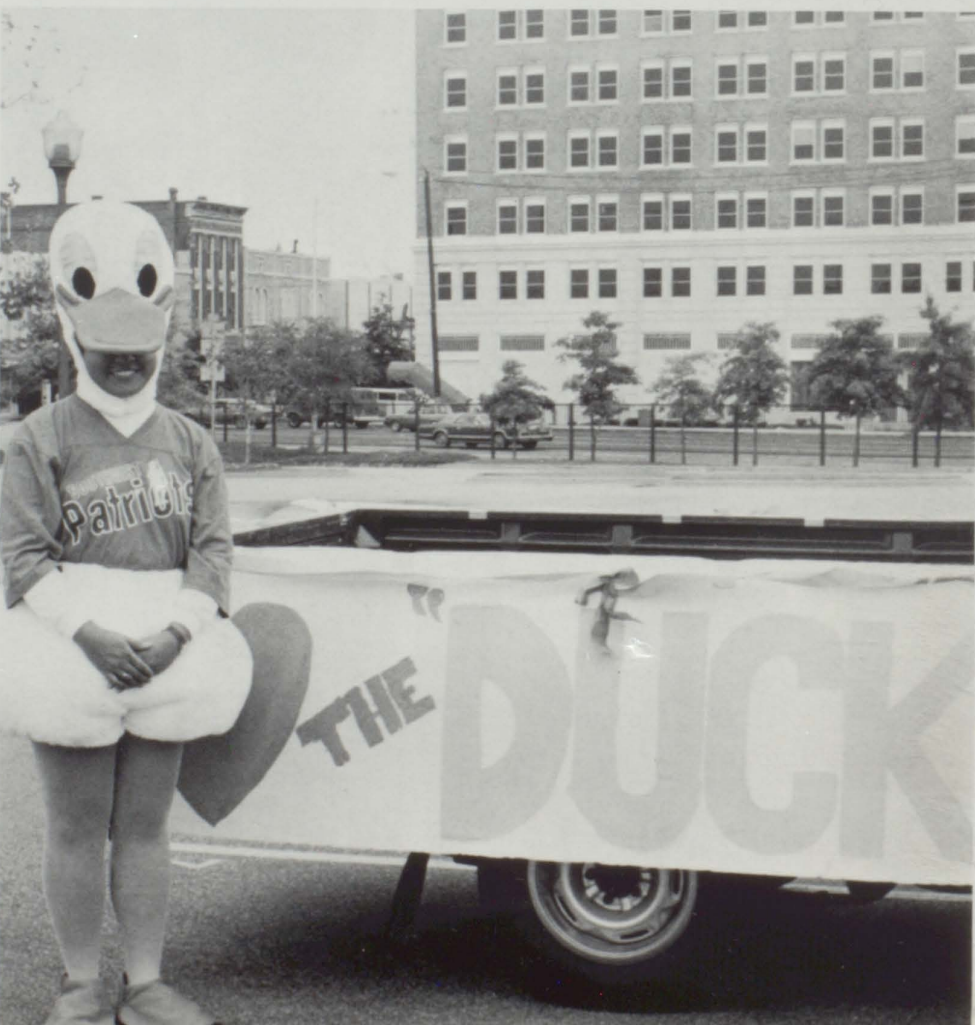

Sunday, May 22, 1989, was designated as Don Richardson Day in Georgia by Governor Joe Frank Harris. It started with a parade in downtown Macon with Terry Fair, Michael Hunt, and Jeff Malone as Parade Marshalls and ended with a dinner attended by three hundred fifty people at the Macon Hilton. It was a day to honor Southwest coach, Don "Duck" Richardson, who has won six state titles and one National Championship in nineteen seasons with the Patriots. Richardson has compiled a lifetime record of 591-98, produced twelve high school All-Americans, and sent eighty seven players to college on scholarships.

At the dinner, a congratulatory letter from President George Bush was read; proclamations from the U.S. Congress, Macon Mayor Lee Robinson, and Bibb School Superintendent Thomas Hagler were also read.

Coach Richardson was "roasted" by college coaches Bobby Cremins of the Georgia Institute of Technology, Hugh Durham of the University of Georgia, and Leonard Hamilton of Oklahoma State. Former Southwest High School players Norm Nixon, Myles Patrick, and Michael Hunt also paid tribute to their former coach.

Numerous gifts, trophies, and a one-week vacation in the Virgin Islands were presented to Coach Richardson. He responded to the day's activities saying "This is too much . . . Saying thank you doesn't seem to be enough, but it's all I can do right now. Maybe somewhere down the line, I can do it by winning six more State Championships." Southwest certainly believes Coach Richardson can!

Soaring With The Eagles

Just as the eagle has long represented leadership, strength, and excellence, so represent the Golden Eagle Awards. The program was established eleven years ago by the Macon Telegraph and News to recognize these same qualities in the area's high school seniors. The name of the awards comes from the eagle that sits atop the Macon Telegraph and News building.

Over 100 students from nine Middle Georgia counties were saluted for combining excellence in academics and personal achievements in eleven different categories.

Each of the winners in the eleven categories received the coveted Golden Eagle trophy and $500. The Honorable Mention winners received a plaque and $100.

After the students were nominated by the school, each had to complete an application that included information about his or her academics, personal involvement in the school and community, and outlook on life.

Robbie Guest won the Golden Eagle Award in Math, Pattie Kim won Honorable Mention in English and the Macon Telegraph and News Minority Journalism Scholarship, and Marcelles Prather won Honorable Mention in Science.

The Honored

On the morning of May 26, the school was buzzing with excited seniors dressed in caps and gowns who were ready to be bussed to the Macon City Auditorium for Senior Honors Day. After the seniors departed, the juniors boarded the buses and attended as guests. The stark emptiness at the school was contrasted with the full liveliness at the Auditorium.

Among the honors presented, Amy Fincher was recognized as the Star Student for scoring the highest on the S.A.T.; Amy scored 1330. Amy's choice for Star Teacher was Mrs. Gloria Jene Stokes; Mrs. Stokes had been a Latin teacher at Southwest and is now teaching at Jonseboro High school. For a complete listing of the honors that were presented on Honors Day see page 242.

Final Frolic

As the seniors exited from the Auditorium, the tension finally broke, and their reserved statures relaxed. They were quickly transported on buses to the Monument Room for the Senior Luncheon. There they were greeted by a light atmosphere which gave them a chance to unwind.

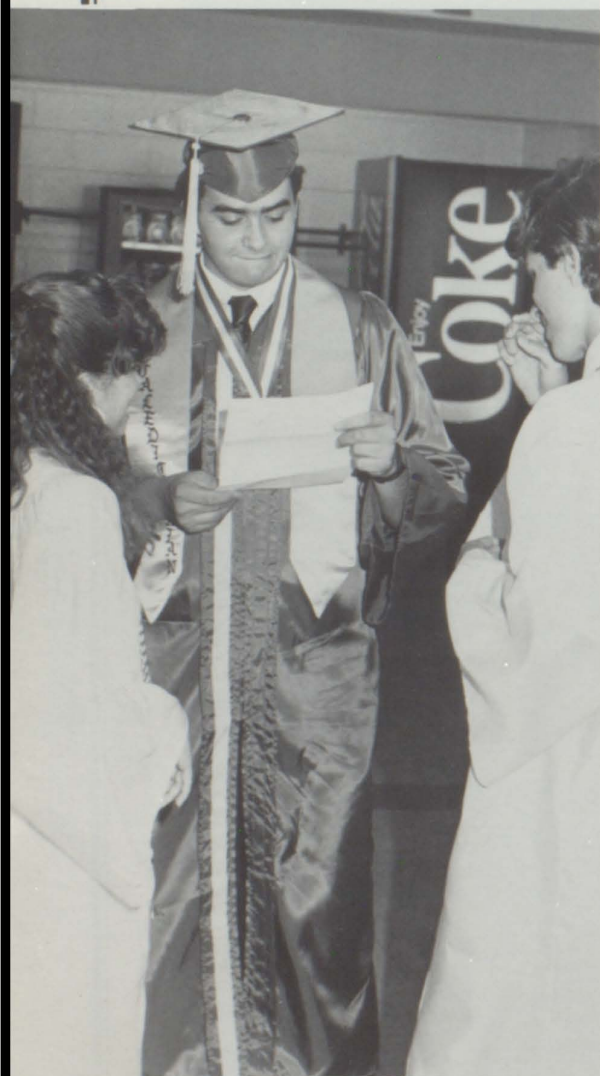

While they were enjoying their meal, they were entertained by the Jazz Ensemble. A hilarious skit, organized by Student Council, followed the meal featuring what they thought would happen at a ten year reunion. After this full day, seniors returned to school. Later that night, they returned for the Senior Dance. Bob's Mobile Sounds provided the music until midnight.

Escalating Anticipation

Amid the corridors of the Macon Coliseum were hundreds of nervous seniors who were anxiously waiting for 8:15 P.M. to arrive. Since they had been there at 7:00 P.M., their anticipation grew as time drew on. While they were waiting, they looked around for friends; in huddles they relived past memories and discussed future plans. They gave each other hugs and became misty-eyed as the realization that things would never be the same crept into their minds. As the time grew closer, they scrambled back to their places and were left alone with their own anxious thoughts. Others continued to make sure they looked all right. This night they would finally cross the line that could sever their childhood security. Time drew nearer and nearer.

The Grand Finale

At last, 8:15 p.m. had arrived. The jostling among seniors subsided and was quickly replaced by an air of formality. The Coliseum seemed to become brighter as the seniors marched in. Pattie Kim opened the ceremony with the Pledge of Allegiance. Naphaphone Thalong-sengchanh, the Senior Class President, gave the invocation. The audience was addressed by three speakers: Robbie Guest — Valedictorian, Amy Fincher — Salutatorian, and Marcelles Prather — Senior Speaker. The first two speakers were chosen because they had the highest grade point averages and the third speaker was chosen by the senior class.

Robbie conveyed the importance of reaching out for dreams; Amy spoke of leaving behind the circle of security, friends, and Southwest and how these past experiences would serve the graduates in the future. Marcelles charged the graduates to respect themselves in order to earn the respect of others. Iris Lavant, the Senior Class Vice-President, closed the ceremony with the benediction.

Departure

As the graduating class of 1989 recessed from the auditorium, a feeling of relief surged through them. Finally, the moment had arrived. They would no longer be thought of as high school students, but as adults, ready to begin their new lives in the real world. Excitement overwhelmed everyone yet a hint of sadness lingered. The halls were filled with teary-eyed graduates who grabbed their special friends for one last hug. Each realized that nothing would ever be the same again. After a few heart-felt farewells and best wishes for the future, the graduates parted and began their long journey toward the future.

Still Flying High!

1988-1989 was a year of dramatic changes for Southwest. Our campus was reduced in size from five buildings spread over a large area, to three buildings on half the space. We survived that. Our student population was one third less than in previous years, except for the last huge senior class at Southwest. But that did not slow us down. Mr. Stuart replaced Mrs. Washington and the world kept turning. Teachers moved furniture and books and personal belongings from all over town, yet classes began on time and school got underway. It was different. Some things that we believed could never change did change, yet Southwest, and the things that made Southwest great in the past did not change. We're still here and we're STILL FLYING HIGH!

Year in Review

This year was full of hope and despair, life and death. The democracies of the world rejoiced as the Chinese students gave peaceful pro-democracy protests in Tiananmen Square, then shook with horror at the massacre shortly after. The Democrats, whose National Convention was held in Atlanta, announced Michael Dukakis as their candidate for President with Lloyd Bentsen as Vice-President. The Republicans announced their endorsement of George Bush and Dan Quayle for the top positions. The Bush/Quayle team won the election with George Bush's promise for a "kinder, gentler nation." Three whales were trapped in Alaskan ice and the United States and Soviet Union worked together with other nations to free them.

The Discovery was successfully launched into space. The Last Temptation of Christ caused conflict among Americans as E.T. came to videocassette. Americans watched as Mike Tyson and Robin Givens wed, only to be divorced shortly after. Burt Reynolds tied the knot with Loni Anderson and adopted a child. Demi Moore and Bruce Willis also got married. America's oldest teenager, Dick Clark, retired. Kareem Abdul-Jabbar retired from his illustrious basketball career. Geraldo Rivera's nose was broken while taping a show on young white supremacists. Oprah Winfrey lost a whopping 65 pounds. Multi-billionaire Donald Trump went into the airline business. Fans said their final good-byes to Lucille Ball, Andy Warhol, Agatha Christie, Louis L'Amour, Salvador Dali, and Gilda Radner.

Going Through The Motions: The Cyclic Nature of Annual Staff

Anyone who thinks being on a year-book staff is all fun and games obviously has never been on an annual staff. It's HARD WORK!! Spirit of '89 got underway in June of '88 with the taking of Senior Pictures. In August, some of the staff, the Editor, Pattie Kim, and the advisors, Ms. Virginia Phillips and Ms. Ann Fugate went on to Georgia Tech for the Taylor workshop. At Tech, the Spirit of '89 was "born." The theme was chosen and the overall plan was made for the book. Once school began, the staff had new words to learn. (A "gutter" is not always something one falls into or crawls out of, and a signature does not always mean signing one's name!) There were pictures to take, layouts to draw, new computers and programs to get used to, and most of all — DEADLINES TO MEET. But it was done. And now the Spirit of '89 is in the hands of the students. The staff has gone on to other things, but for a few short months they worked hard to produce something very special, a memory book, or a history book of one school year. And now there is a new Staff, and they are learning that a gutter is not just something you fall in to or crawl out of . . . And, yes, it WAS fun.

Spirit of '89 Staff: Editor — Pattie Kim, Jerry Busbee, Julie Cannon, Rachel Cornelius, Warren Cray, Angela Dover, Konswella Fields, Robbie Guest, Maria Hamlin, Doug Harrison, Carla Heath, Toshia Jones, Tashia Livingston, Brad Marchman, Johnathan May, Mavis McCormick, Chris Railey, Becky Smith, Cherie Smith, Catrina Taylor, Conessa Taylor, Nap Thalongsenchanh, Mike Ward, Tom Williams, and Bo Yun. Special thanks to Larry Naylor and the staff of Southeastern Portraits, Inc. and Les Parsons of Taylor Publishing Co. without whom a gutter might be something to fall into . . . etc.

“What is a yearbook advisor?”

What is a yearbook advisor? We aren't sure, because Spirit is not an ordinary yearbook. In order to continue the tradition of producing this award winning book, advisors have to be willing to work many extra hours. We decided to log those extra hours for Spirit of '89. We had over seventy just during the senior pictures in June (for the class of '89). When the total passed 300, we decided we didn't really want to know. Whatever the total was, multiply it by two.

We have been lucky to have a tradition of hard-working dedicated editors and staff members over the years. Spirit of '89 was no exception. Pattie Kim clocked almost as many hours “on-the-job” as we did and a lot more at home.

We aren't complaining, though. We LOVE the book. We're very proud of it. We appreciate the hours of planning and actual effort it takes to put a book like ours in the students' hands. There are days when we wonder, “Why are we doing this?” — usually when it's 8:30 p.m. and we have a deadline. But, in October when that book comes in and we SEE the result of all our efforts, we KNOW and the staff knows. And we are proud.

Thanks, staff of the Spirit of '89. You worked hard and you have created a book of which to be proud. Without a doubt, we're STILL FLYING HIGH!

We love you!

Fond Memories

Being the Editor of the Spirit of '89 has been the most difficult, time-consuming, challenging task that I have ever undertaken; yet, it has become the closest to my heart. The special memories from this year will always remain with me. I LOVED every minute of it . . . even the deadlines! When I was first approached to take on this job, I was overwhelmed — I never believed that I could really do it. As the book came to a close, it still seemed unreal. I was bombarded with mixed feelings of relief and sadness. I witnessed a “chapter” of my life closing.

I received a great deal of help along the way. When things seemed bleakest, and I thought I could never get to the work that had piled up, God gave me the strength and energy to continue. My family showed me love and understanding as my room became a disaster area strewn with balled-up paper, quad-packs, and croppers (thanks Mom and Dad!). Thank you Staff. I will miss you. Each one of you has touched my heart, and you will always be special to me. Special thanks to Doug Harrison and Robbie Guest, my “computer people.” Most of all, THANK YOU Ms. Fruitcake and Ms. Philip — an organization truly has no foundation if it doesn't have knowledgeable, caring advisors. Thank you for putting up with me, my questions, and my tendency to forget things (like on a certain Saturday at 7:00 a.m. when I left the cropper at school). Without you two there would not have been a Spirit of '89.

Southwest went through many drastic changes this year. Mrs. Washington retired and the school was divided; however, the vital spirit remained. When my staff and I chose Still Flying High for this book's theme, we wanted to incorporate that idea — that we still had the spirit and that it still affects all aspects of Southwest life. Through all the changes, we have remained together, and we are STILL FLYING HIGH!

IN MEMORY OF LORENZA THOMAS
AND
MICHAEL FELTS

Remember me when I am gone away,
Gone far away into the silent land;
When you can no more hold me by the hand,
Nor I half turn to go yet turning stay.
Remember me when no more, day by day,
You tell me of our future that you planned;
Only remember me; you understand
It will be late to counsel then or pray.
Yet if you should forget me for a while
Better by far you should forget and smile
Than that you should remember and be sad.
